

Wrestling stars George South, Masked Ranger visit LEC

Michelle Wright, left, lends a hand to wrestling pro George South, who defeated his opponent who held him momentarily in a headlock.

Wrestling pro George South plays to the crowd asking for a hand. He defeated his opponent in the ring and shared a faithful testimony with the crowd at the LEC Thursday. "God loves wrestlers and God loves you. No matter what you do, no matter where you go the Lord is always with you," he told those in attendance.

THORNBURG: 'Just Plan It'

Some of the most well known landmark court cases have involved individuals in their 20's. The stakes are really higher for younger persons because if tragedy strikes, they might be kept alive and in existence for decades in a condition they would not want. So these tools are important planning tools for all adults.

Monty Thornburg has been the Director of the Patrick Center for 29 years and is a part-time licensed funeral director/embalmer. He is by no means an expert on advance directives but has seen personally and professionally, first-hand, the importance of having these documents in place.

He is a member of Journey, a group of community volunteers who believe end of life issues are a road we all will travel. How we travel is determined by how we prepare for our journey. One of the primary tasks of Journey is to educate the community and family members about end of life issues and to educate the community and family members about care giving for both the caregiver and receiver. Nike's slogan is "Just Do IT!" The slogan with Journey is similar: Just Plan It.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor:

On May 8, I will be voting for Amendment #1 to define marriage in our state constitution as between one man and one woman and as the only recognized domestic union in our state.

This is a must if we care about our state and it's citizens and desire God's blessings upon us.

I pray all others will do likewise.
