Start your collection now of tissue paper rolls, cereal boxes, plastic bottles, etc. to bring with you to camp. What about our local high school mascots and popular university mascots such as the Carolina Tar Heels, the Duke Blue Devils and the NC State Wolf Pack? What is your favorite NFL team, professional basketball team, or baseball team? Ever wonder how these mascots came to represent their particular teams? We will answer some of these questions as we use these famed mascots to make art for the week. We will draw and paint them, stamp them into clay, and make relief sculptures with them and even paint some of them on our faces! Come share the fun!
