

Backyard Wing Grillin' competition set for July 21 Ice cream - an American pastime

A Backyard Chicken Wing Grillin' competition will be a feature of the city-sponsored Beach Blast July 21 at Patriots Park.

Eric Pardo, Big E's BBQ Catering, and Cherokee Street Tavern will sponsor the grillin' competition which will benefit the American Legion Scholarship Foundation.

The grilling competition will be limited to 20 teams who will grill chicken wings on a backyard gas grill. Teams will be provided five pounds of chicken wings to prep and grill (delivered, picked up) at 10 a.m. Set up time begins at 8 a.m.-9 a.m. with grilling started no earlier than 11 a.m. Five wings will be submitted to the judges area no earlier than 12 noon and no later than 12:30 p.m. Awards ceremony, with prizes for first, second, and third, and Peoples' Choice award will be presented at 2 p.m. Entry fee is $25 for each team.

Any sauce or combination of flavors can be used to season the chicken wings.

During the People's Choice on Saturday, American Legion members will be selling tasting tickets at their booth at Patriots Park. Sheets of five tasting tickets are $10. To sample, ticket holders can go to any five of the backyard competitors for a sample. One voting ballot will need to be submitted to determine "Best Wings of Beach Blast."

A special area will be set up at Patriots Park for the teams, each with a 20x20 foot area for a small canopy, chair, prep area, coolers and gas grill. Corporate and service group sponsorship is encouraged. No BBQ competition teams will be permitted to enter the competition.

Beach Blast opens at 10 a.m. on July 21 with fun events.

"We're planning a fun day and the grilling competition should attract many of our backyard chefs," says Ellis Noell, the city of Kings Mountain's special events coordinator.
