McKnight, Warlick join the KMPD force

Christopher Anthony McKnight, 21, and David Brandon Warlick, 21, took the oath of office from Mayor Rick Murphrey Monday morning as Kings Mountain Police Department's newest patrolmen.

Both new patrolmen are single, have completed basic law enforcement training, and are already on the job. McKnight was working the first shift this week and Warlick was working the second shift at KMPD.

Warlick, son of Harley and Christy Warlick, is a native of Buncombe County and graduated in 2009 from Burns High School. For the past 2 1/2 years he has worked as a gas technician at the City of Kings Mountain Gas Department. "I have always wanted to be a policeman," said Warlick.

Kings Mountain native McKnight was reared in Kings Mountain by Otis and Margie Cole. He is a 2009 graduate of Kings Mountain High School.

After the "swearing-in" ceremony led by the mayor, the new policemen greeted their family and friends and refreshments were served in the Council Chambers at city hall.
