Kings Mountain fell to Shelby 6-3 in its opening season tennis match Wednesday at Shelby.

The Lady Mountaineers were in the match all the way. They split the six singles matches and were close to winning the #2 and #3 doubles matches before falling by close scores.

"After winning three of the singles matches I truly felt that we had a very good chance to bring a victory back to KM," said Coach Rick Henderson. "I was thinking we would need to win just two of the three doubles matches but we came up short, losing all three doubles. Two of the three doubles matches were closer than the score indicated. The same went for the singles matches. They were all close with the exception of the #1 seed."
