CHS Class of '60 meets regularly

The Cherryville High School graduating Class of 1960 may have set a record.

Unlike other graduates who only meet once every five years, this group of former students plans events all year.

"You won't find us sitting in our rocking chairs," says Dartha Dease Stroupe, the group leader, and Brenda Ramsey Belt.

They held their first reunion five years ago and then Dartha, of Cherryville, and Brenda Belt, of Kings Mountain, put their heads together and the result has been fun for as many as 50-60 returning alumni.

Members meet once a month for lunch at Roma Italian in Cherryville. A 10-member planning committee meets once a month for breakfast at Zippers in Lincolnton. In October 50-60 people head for Myrtle Beach, SC. On the Fourth of July they gather at First Union Methodist Church in Cherryville for a cookout. The Christmas party was held recently at First United Methodist Church in Cherryville to a large crowd.

And the group has formed its own entertainment group they call Cherry Pickers. The group includes Jim and Brenda Belt of Kings Mountain, Jerry Walker, and Dennis and Diana Rayfield. Jim Belt says they plan all types of music, from Beach to Country, and Dennis Rayfield is featured on harmonica. Belt updates a video at each event and during beach trips they enjoy the video, games, and take yearbooks and photo albums to share with friends. Seventy-three members comprised the Class of 1960.

Each year the group includes former classmates in lower grades. Some come regularly from Mississippi, Indiana, California and Hickory, to name a few of the cities represented in the reunion group. "Our committee meets Wednesday to plan our October reunion and we are thinking about a mountain trip," said Dartha.

Not only does the group have fun they also donate to Cherryville Area Ministries and recently made a $200 donation to the cancer fund.

"We don't sit down and get old," said Dartha, who is proud of friends who enjoy getting together and having fun.

Said Jim Belt, "They started looking at photo albums the other day and it took me two hours to finally get a picture."
