Special Events

PET ADOPTION - Saturday, May 11, 2013 at the National Guard Armory in Kings Mountain, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. This is Brittany Lysek's Senior Project. She is working with the Tri-County Animal Shelter, along with PetSmart to get at least 10 dogs adopted into good homes. The price for the adoptions ranges from $75 - $130 according to the age, size, and background of the pets. The cost is to help cover the spaying or neutering and all vaccinations. Any dry or canned pet food donated will go to the shelter to help feed the pets there.

This year will be Bessemer City's 25th Down Home Festival on Friday, May 10 and Saturday, May 11, and the festival will be bigger than ever. Friday night (6pm - 10pm) is Family Fun Night and will feature "The Legacy - Band" at the Street Dance on Pennsylvania Ave., as well as rides and amusements. A variety of food vendors sell concessions, including pizza, BBQ, hotdogs, and more.

Saturday (12noon - 10pm) offers an opportunity to visit many vendors, with items for sale including jewelry, food, crafts, and more. Entertainment on multiple stages includes a variety of musical groups as well as local dance teams and other acts. Delicious burgers, hot dogs, BBQ, cotton candy, funnel cakes, roasted corn, turkey legs, snow cones and ice cream are just some of the festival fare offered by our food vendors. A wide range of crafts can be found, as well as painting, bake sales, and more. Amusements rides abound. This year the rides will include a Ferris wheel. Saturday night the main stage will feature "The Embers" for the Street Dance and the Bessemer City Merchants Association will have a beer & wine garden area near the main stage. The evening ends with a dazzling fireworks display.

Other Down Home Festival events usually include a 5K race/walk, Cornhole tournament, tours of the Bessemer City History & Arts Museum, a Student Art Show and the popular Miss Down Home Festival Pageant. All pageant contestants receive a tiara and winners become members of the Miss Gastonia Queen's Court. The Miss Gastonia Scholarship Association sponsors the pageant with proceeds benefiting the Miss Gastonia scholarship fund. Family entertainer Rick Hubbard "Kazoobie" will perform at the festival on Saturday and at Bessemer City Primary School on Friday.
