3 homers highlight KM win over Queen City

Next home game Sunday against Gastonia Post 23

Kings Mountain Post 155 slammed three home runs and rolled over the Queen City Mustangs 12-2 in seven innings in an Area Four game Sunday night at KM's Lancaster Field.

Brandon Bell's three-run homer highlighted a four-run uprising for Post 155 in the top of the first inning. The game was Queen City's home game but was moved to KM because of work being done on the Mustangs' home field in Charlotte.

KM leadoff hitter Jhaqui Adams of Bessemer City led off the game with a single, stole second and went to third when the Queen City catcher's throw sailed into center field. He scored on a single by Kevin Mills.

An out later Hunter Stinnett drew a walk to set the stage for Bell's home run over the left-center field fence.

Alex Reynolds' solo home run in the second increased the KM lead to 5-0. It stayed that way until the fifth when Colby Crisp and Adams singled and Mills slammed a three-run shot over the left field fence to put KM up 8-0.

Queen City got its only two runs in the fifth off KM starter Alex Grooms but Post 155 put the game on ice in the top of the seventh on a two-run single by Mills and a two-run double by Stinnett.

Stinnett came on to pitch the bottom of the seventh inning and put the Mustangs down in order to close out the game on the 10-run mercy rule.

Grooms scattered five hits and struck out five to get the win. He did experience some control problems, walking six, but he and his defense came up with big outs to get out of jams.

Adams had four hits and Mills and Bell three each to lead the KM offense. Crisp had two hits and Bullock, Reynolds, Hegler and Stinnett added one apiece. Mills drove in six of the 10 runs.

Kings Mountain opened its season Saturday night at home with a 10-4 loss to the Lincoln County Cardinals.

Dallas Conner started for Post

155 and took the loss. He worked six innings and struck out five. Jacob Withers pitched the final three innings and fanned two.

Daniel Barrett led KM with 2-for-4. Reynolds and Adams added a hit each.

Hayden Deal got the win over Lincoln County. Seymore and Sullivan had three hits each.

Kings Mountain was scheduled to play at Hickory last night. They go to Huntersville Saturday and host Gaston Post 23 Sunday.
