Cole leads team to Puerto Rican volleyball title

Shonda Cole of Kings Mountain recently led her team, the Mayaguez Indians, to the Puerto Rican Women's Superior Volleyball League championship.

Cole scored 26 points in the championship victory over Corozal Pinkin and accumulated 80 points during the tournament's four matches.

Cole was elected the series' most valuable player. Cole is a former volleyball star at Kings Mountain High School and the University of South Carolina and is a member of the Kings Mountain Sports Hall of Fame along with her father, Otis Cole, a former basketball star at KMHS and Florida State University, and the 2001 KMHS state championship volleyball team which was inducted on Saturday, May 11.

Tennis Champion

Maddie Lutz, 16, of Kings Mountain placed second in the Racquet Club Open held at the Racquet Club of Gastonia on May 17-19. Over 70 players from North and South Carolina competed in the United States Tennis Association Sanctioned Event. Maddie is a member of the Kings Mountain High School girls tennis and golf teams.

Kaitlyn Saldo, Alyssa White receive Grover Woman's Club scholarships

Kaitlyn Saldo and Alyssa White, Kings Mountain High School seniors, have received $250 scholarships from the Grover Woman's Club. They were honored Thursday night at a reception hosted by the Grover club, with family members in attendance. Saldo, daughter of Lisa and Chris Saldo of Grover, plans to attend Cleveland Community College and pursue a degree in Elementary Education. At KMHS she is active in Renaissance Club, Make a Wish and FCCLA. She is active in First Baptist Church of Grover and has a five-year-old sister, Jada. Kaitlyn's senior project was instructing third and fourth graders at Grover School in a dance project and they all participated in the Grover Christmas Parade. White is the daughter of Jeff and Janet

White of Grover and granddaughter of the late Juanita and Lee Pruette of Grover and Ruby Judd of Blacksburg, SC and the late Wayne White. She has a brother, Shane Davis, and a sister, Dawn Richards. White's senior project was healthy benefits of exercise for minors and she built a picnic table from treated lumber which she presented to the Kings Mountain Family YMCA. She plans to attend Gaston College and major in nursing. At KMHS she is active in track, the National Technical Honor Society, the Math club and TRI-M Club. She is active in New Buffalo Baptist Church in Grover. Club members served party refreshments, including a decorated cake: "Congratulations Alyssa and Kaitlyn" and punch.
