Henderson: doesn't let obstacles stand in her way

From page 3C

like to be a pastry chef.
Jessica's senior project was on child and domestic abuse. She sponsored a bake sale and donated the proceeds to an abuse shelter in Shelby. She has also volunteered at the Life Enrichment Center in Kings Mountain.

What does Jessica plan to do this summer? If they can locate a placement for Terry, Jessica would like to take her mother on a trip.

While most seniors are out having fun, not only is Jessica assisting her mother and helping with her dad, she has a friend temporarily staying at her house with a one-week old baby. "I was up at 2 a.m. feeding the baby," Jessica adds.

Jessica is the daughter of Terry and Susan Henderson of Kings Mountain and the granddaughter of Betty Rhom of Forest City.
