

KMHS Volleyball Schedule

Kings Mountain High School 2013 women's volleyball schedule:

AUGUST

- 6 - Scrimmage at Charlotte Latin, 9 a.m. (V/JV)
- 10 - Scrimmage at KMHS, 9 a.m. (Varsity only)
- 13 - at Central Cabarrus scrimmage, TBA (V/JV)
- 19 - East Rutherford, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 21 - at Burns, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 22 - at St. Stephens, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 26 - Shelby, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 28 - at Draughn, 4:30 (V/JV)

SEPTEMBER

- 2 - Crest, 4:30 (JV/V)
- 4 - at R-S Central, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 9 - Chase, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 16 - at East Burke, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 23 - Burns, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 24 - at Hickory, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 25 - at Shelby, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 28 - at Serve for the Cure, 9 a.m. (Varsity only)
- 30 - Draughn, 4:30 (V/JV)

OCTOBER

- 1 - St. Stephens, 4:30, (V/JV)
- 2 - at Crest, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 7 - RS Central, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 8 - at Polk County, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 9 - at Chase, 4:30 (V/JV)
- 16 - East Burke, 4:30 (Senior Night)
- 19 - State playoffs begin

Season passes on sale at KMHS

Sports passes for the 2013-14 school year are on sale at Kings Mountain High School.

- An all-sports pass is $100. It admits one person to every KMHS home regular season sporting event and includes a reserved seat for every home football game as well as a reserved parking pass and membership to the KMHS Booster Club. All seats with backs cost an additional $10 for the season.

- The Mountaineer Pass is $150 and admits two people to every KMHS home regular season sporting event. It includes reserved seats for two people to every home football game as well as reserved parking for home games and membership to the KMHS Booster Club. Seats with backs cost an additional $10 each and children can be added for $30 each (grades K-12).

-A football season pass is $45 and admits one person to every home regular season game as well as a reserved seat with back for the season.

(Kings Mountain and the SMAC Conference will not accept the NC Senior Tarheel pass.)

Tennis tryouts begin Thursday at KMHS

Try-outs for the Kings Mountain High School tennis team will begin on Thursday, August 1. Meet at the high school tennis courts at 5 p.m.

All student athletes are required to have a physical on file before they can participate.

For more information contact Coach Rick Henderson via email at Rick.Henderson2@duke-energy.com or by cell 704-460-8066.

SPORTS REPORTS

Coaches and scorekeepers, email your game reports to sports.kmherald@gmail.com

LIFESTYLES

Amanda Carol Willis and Eric Wayne McLeymore

Willis, McLeymore couple engaged

Mr. and Mrs. James Willis of Bellwood, Mr. and Mrs. Brian Estep of Shelby, and Mr. and Mrs. Darryl McLeymore of Cherryville announce the engagement of their children, Amanda Willis and Eric McLeymore.

A graduate of Burns High School and Cleveland Community College, Amanda is employed at Magic Mirror Hair-styling in Cherryville and Jans Restaurant in Fallston.

She is the granddaughter of Jimmy Willis of Belwood and the late Linda Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Stovall of Iva, SC., Ronnie Lail of Belwood and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Estep of Shelby.

A graduate of Cherryville High School and Gaston College, Eric is employed at Caromont Regional Medical Center and owner of Moon Bar Farms. He is the grandson of Mrs. Cindi McLeymore, Mrs. Carolyn Riddle, the late Furman McLeymore, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McSwain. Amanda and Eric will be married November 2, 2013.

Caleb Reid McAbee celebrates birthday

Caleb Reid McAbee, son of Colt and Sheena McAbee of Kings Mountain, celebrated his second birthday Tuesday, July 30, 2013.

A Toy Story 3 birthday party was held Saturday, July 27, at his home, attended by Caleb, his sister Natalie Green, close friends and family. His parents served Toy Story cupcakes with pizza and ice cream.

Caleb is the grandson of David and Sheila Grigg and Robbie and Debbie Dover, all of Kings Mountain, and great-grandson of Joyce Grigg of Shelby and the late Gene Grigg and Mary Goforth of Kings Mountain and the late Gene Goforth.

Caleb Reid McAbee

Clover to kick off 12th Arts Series

The Clover, SC School District Auditorium Performing Arts Series kicks off its 12th season Sept. 12 at 8 p.m. with the Depue Brothers Band. Four violinist brothers and their symphonic friends join forces, bending and blending genres while delivering a powerful mix of classical chops, blazing bluegrass and rock and roll.

In October the comic genius, virtuoso Master of the Impossible Tomas Kubinek will perform and pianist Emile Pandolfi returns to the CSDA stage.

In November the United States Navy Jazz Band the Commodores will bring their eclectic mix of traditional big band music and exciting vocal arrangements to Clover audiences.

In January, patrons can begin the New Year with Dallas Brass and California

Dreaming, the sun-kissed song and dance tribute to an era that introduced the world to the good vibrations of love and peace and summer-time fun.

February brings two family events. The Tarradiddle Players will present the classic fairy tale, "Hansel and Gretel" and the juggling performers, the Fettucini Brothers, will be on stage. Singer-songwriters Jimmy Webb and Kathy Mattea round out the season in March with classic hits and new tunes.

Season tickets are available at $50 for all 10 events plus a special subscribers' only reception. Individual tickets are also on sale for each event. For more information, call the auditorium at 803-222-8018 or visit the website at www.clover2.k12.sc.us/csda.

Miss Gastonia pageant slated at Gaston College

The Miss Gastonia Scholarship pageant will be held Sunday, August 11, at 4 p.m. in Myers Auditorium at Gaston College, 201 Highway 321, South Dallas.

Contestants will compete in interview, talent, fitness/swimsuit and evening wear categories. Four young women will be crowned-Miss Gastonia, Miss Gaston County, Miss Gastonia's Outstanding Teen, and Miss Gaston County's Outstanding Teen. The winners will represent the region in the 2014 Miss North Carolina pageant.

The public is invited. Tickets cost $20 and will be available at the door. For more information, visit www.missgastoniapageant.com

Piano concert slated at Gardner-Webb

The "Building Hope" campaign for funds for a new women's and children's shelter in Cleveland County will sponsor a piano concert by Thomas Pandolfi on August 24 at 7 p.m. at Dover Theater on the campus of Gardner-Webb University in Boiling Springs.

The young American pianist is billed as an exciting virtuoso who, with each passing season, is becoming more and more sought after by audiences worldwide and showered with superlatives by critics for his passionate artistry and amazing technique. He will present "Into the Night with Gershwin" at the Aug. 24 concert.

General admission is $10 and students (with ID) can purchase a ticket for $5.

Tickets can be purchased at the door on a space available as is or in advance from Cleveland County Abuse Prevention Council, 704-487-9325 or from Betsy Wells, 704-739-1545, betsywells@yahoo.com.

Wells, of Kings Mountain, is chairman of the APC building fund.

Class teaches how to be foster parent

Want to be a foster/adoptive parent?

You can if you are between the ages of 21 and 65 and have a stable home. You can be single, work outside the home, and any race or ethnic origin. There is no education requirement and no fees to adopt waiting children in DSS custody. If you private adopt then the adoptive family will need to pay for the adoption to be filed and complete. A criminal and child protective service background check, fire inspection, references and a home study are required.

Cleveland County Department of Social Services, 130 S. Post Road, Shelby, sponsors a 30-hour class that teaches you to be a great parent. Meetings are one night per week for three hours. Ten hours of training is provided every year.

Call Cheryl Wilson Ext. 278 or Susan Allen Ext. 274 at 704-487-0661 for more information.

Bake sale, fundraiser Aug. 1

Patrick Senior Center will sponsor a bake sale on Aug. 1 from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. as a fundraiser for Gary Hollifield, solo vocalist winner in the Cleveland County Senior Games, to help defray the cost of his trip to Raleigh to represent the Senior Center in the senior games Sept. 26-28.

Scisum & Son

PAINT & BODY SHOP

704-730-0050

2027 Shelby Hwy

Kings Mountain

Since 1997