Bobby Milton "Bob" Kimmell

A true southern gentleman

JOHNS ISLAND, S.C. - Bobby Milton "Bob" Kimmell, 83, Johns Island, S.C., passed away Wednesday, August 6, 2014, of congestive heart failure at his home. He was born May 6, 1931, in Kings Mountain, N.C., to the late Pauline and Harry Kimmell.

Married August 17, 1958, to Patricia Ann Gibson, he was a 1958 graduate of Clemson University with a degree in Textile Engineering. While a student at Clemson, he was a member of the Phi Psi textile fraternity.

His career in textile management spanned 43 years, including 30 years with Riegel Textile in Johnston,

S.C. He retired in 2001 from West Point Stevens in Laurinburg, N.C.

He and his wife Pat were also active members of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Laurinburg. Known for his gentle nature and fun-loving sense of humor, he was the epitome of the Southern gentleman.

Kimmell is survived by his wife of 55 years, Patricia "Pat" Kimmell, of Johns Island, S.C.; son Robert Scott of Cincinnati, Ohio; daughter Gina Louann Albright (Jason) of Laurinburg, N.C., grandchildren Dalton Luke Albright and Audrey Claire Albright; and brother Jim Kimmell (Cornelia) of Myrtle Beach, S.C.

Memorials may be made to Odyssey Hospice, 5965 Core Avenue, Suite 603, N. Charleston, S.C. 29406.

Market Minutes with Margot

Margot Plonk
Foothills Farmers Market

All the rainy, drizzly weather hasn't changed things for the Kings Mountain Farmers Market too much. Top-notch vendors and loyal customers continue to have downtown KM hopping every Saturday morning from 8-12.

This Saturday at your farmers' market, you can expect to see watermelon, corn, cucumbers, and of course many varieties of peppers, tomatoes and squash at the produce vendor stands.

We are lucky enough to have a new fresh flower vendor, who carries gorgeous sunflowers, zinnias, and cosmos, among other pretties!

Also, check out our new jewelry vendor, and probably some of the best bratwurst sold in town from Suzy Q's Farm.

Come see what you've been missing!

As usual, there are other fun things going on:

- Live music with Caleb Davis from 10-12

- Cleveland County Master Gardeners group will present: "Getting Rid of Fruit Flies!" (I think everyone needs that advice this time of year!)

- School supply drive

- Farmer Foodshare

(fresh food) collection for local soup kitchen ministries (Backyard garden over-production is welcomed!)

Come out, see your friends and neighbors, listen to some great music, meet some knowledgeable gardeners, and farmers, and support those that need our assistance.

That's just what the community of Kings Mountain does!

Medical ID theft can be life-threatening

by Attorney General
Roy Cooper

Identity theft can be an expensive, exasperating experience for victims. And when it's medical identity theft, it can also threaten your health.

Medical identity theft occurs when someone uses your name or your health insurance information to see a doctor, get a medical procedure or medication, file claims, or receive other medical goods or services.

In addition to the many problems associated with financial identity theft, medical identity theft adds another dangerous consequence: contamination of your personal medical records.

When someone receives health care services by pretending to be you, the thief's test results and medical
