

Maddie Lutz, left, and Sarah Scism are holding trophies they received at last week's Kings Mountain High women's golf banquet. Lutz holds the most valuable player award and her All-Conference award and Scism holds her All-Conference award.

Lady Patriots vs. Chase, November 25

Photos by Gary Smart
Kings Mountain Middle School's volleyball team finished fourth in the Tri-County Conference with a 7-3 record and is involved in the post-season conference championship playoffs this week. The Lady Patriots were scheduled to face Crest in the opening round Tuesday. The winner will face the RS Central-North Lincoln winner for the conference championship Thursday.

Pat wrestlers win 12th match

Kings Mountain Middle School's wrestlers ran their Tri-County Conference record to 9-0 and overall mark to 12-0 Tuesday with a 69-18 win over RS Central.

The win clinched the #1 seed for the conference playoffs, which were scheduled to begin yesterday. If the Patriots won that match, they will host the conference championship Thursday at 4 p.m.

Winners for KM were Aiden Wilson, Alexis Garcia, Lannden Zanders, David Bell, Jordan Lineberger, Estevan Chichester, Joe Ruffalo, David Ford, Ryan McRee, Zack Humphries, Isreal Martinez and Jeremiah Brown.

KM JV boys defeat Burns

Kings Mountain High's JV boys ran their record to 5-1 overall and 2-0 in the South Mountain Athletic Conference last Tuesday with a 28-25 victory over Burns at Donald L. Parker Gymnasium.

Madisyn Bolin and Kavin Mosley led the Mountaineers with eight points each. Jaden Adams and Jake Merchant each had four points and four rebounds. Dylan Thrift and Mikey Medlin scored two points each.

Scoring for Burns were Rice with 8, Wilson 5, Bridges 4, Epps 2, Robertson 3, and McCluney 2.

Lady Patriots beaten by RS

Kings Mountain Middle School's volleyball team fell to R-S Central 3-0 in a Tri-County Conference volleyball match last week.

Kings Mountain was scheduled to participate in the opening round of the Tri-County championship playoffs yesterday. The championship game is Thursday.

KM/BURNS: Boys and girls sweep Burns

From Page 1B

sion and 39-34 going into the fourth period.

The fourth quarter, though, was all Mountaineers.

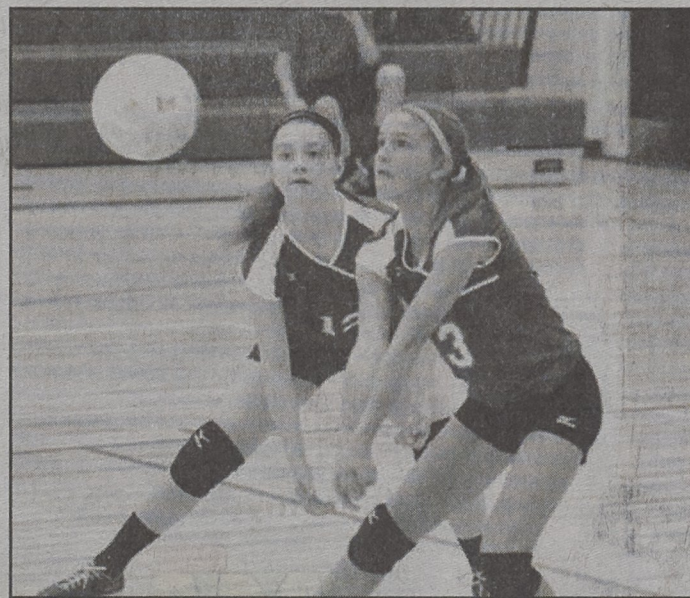

While KM's defense was holding Burns scoreless, the offense built a 47-34 lead after a dunk by Skidmore with 4:30 left in the game. After Burns finally score at the 3:45 mark to cut the difference to 47-36, KM held the Bulldogs scoreless again until 47 seconds left in the game.

GIRLS GAME
KM (62) - Hutchens 2, Portee 14, Pressley 5, Farmer 15, Rhodes 5, Thompson 16, Adams 5.
B (31) - Boling 3, Maddox 15, Howze 2, Huskey 9, Duckett 1, Wheeler 6 Brown 6, Strong 8, Hopper 1.

BOYS GAME
KM (57) - McClain 14, Skidmore 13, Hill 8, Starr 9, Helton 2, Crocker 6, Coulter 3, Johnson 2.
B (38) - Hamrick 10, Leslie 9, DeStaffino 8, Falls 8, Lawrence 2, Proctor 1.

Kings Mountain's Dante Starr drives on a Burns defender in last week's game at Parker Gym.

GRAND OPENING
Easy Income Tax & Bookkeeping

Free e-filing on Federal & State returns.
Tax preparation fees withheld from refund when applicable. We do All States!

50% OFF tax preparation fee, When you bring in 2013's tax return

We handle I.R.S. and other taxing authority letters!

435 N. Piedmont Ave., Kings Mountain
704-419-1833
Walk-Ins Welcome!

Over 50 years Experience!

We offer Christmas Sales every day of the year!

Why wait for those big holiday sales? We offer the best 'cash' purchase prices of anybody around. Every day. Every week. Every month of the year.

Gabriel Engaged • Pandora • Diana Classic • Citizen Watch • and More

Are you looking for excellence and an experience you will always remember? Stop in & see us today for wonderful holiday gifts!

Dellinger's
Jewel Shop
112 W. Mountain St.
Kings Mountain

*Cash purchase prices exclude Pandora & repairs.
704-739-8031 • Mon-Sat 9a.m.-5:30p.m. • www.dellingersjewelshop.com