SHOP SMART: Tips for avoiding common holiday shopping scams

dress and telephone number and verify them before you place an order. If you are buying gifts off of websites like Ebay or Craigslist be sure to check out the seller and the product before you agree to buy. If you are meeting someone to purchase an item, do it at a public place like a shopping center or even police station.

It's great to make donations during the holidays but learn where your money will go and how it will be used. Research charities with the BBB's Wise Giving Alliance and www.secretary.state.nc.us/csl. Give to causes that you choose rather than being swayed by high-pressure telemarketers or text messages and emails that may be scams. Check out more tips on <http://www.ncdoj.gov/Consumer/Charity/Giving-to-Charity.aspx>

Criminals and scammers don't take a holiday. Always be aware of your surroundings and protect your wallet and access to your credit or debit cards when in public. Avoid carrying large amounts of cash. And never share personal information with telemarketers who call you or respond to emails or text messages that ask you for personal information.

To check out a company with the Attorney General's Office or file a consumer complaint, call 1-877-5-NO-SCAM toll-free within North Carolina or visit <http://www.ncdoj.gov>. To check out a company's record or file a complaint with your local Better Business Bureau, visit www.bbb.org.
