

Scenes from KM Triathlon Saturday

Triathletes make their way up a steep hill after finishing the swimming segment at Saturday's Over the Mountain Triathlon.

A cyclist on Stony Brook Rd. is about three miles into the biking portion of the OTM Saturday morning.

Saturday's overall winner Trent Kirk wasn't new to the OTM Triathlon. He competed in the tough race from 2003-2006 and took a nearly 10-year break.

A participant emerges from Moss Lake after the swimming portion of the event.

Bikers join spectators, friends and family near the finish line of Saturday's big race, which wrapped up around noon.
