

Summer stock actors present "Hansel and Gretel"

By Caleb Ryan Sigmon

"Liberty Mountain" has had an incredible response from the community so far! We are halfway through our 2015 Summer Run. Tickets are still available for the next two weekends, but you'd better get them fast!

The 2015 Acting Company is excited to announce our Second Stage Production at the Joy Performance Center. Cast Members from "Liberty Mountain" will be performing our own adaptation of "Hansel and Gretel" on Saturday mornings. There are lots of talented people in the Mainstage show, many out-of-town actors that are excited to tackle new roles in this classic, whimsical fairy tale.

"Hansel and Gretel" tells the story of two children that are abandoned in the woods by their evil step-mother. Searching through the forest, the children stumble across a house made of candy. Little do they know, this candy cottage is inhabited by a witch that waylays children to cook and eat them. It's dark and spooky, but also funny and family-friendly. The show features some really neat special effects and live music.

Performances for "Hansel and Gretel" are on Saturday, July 11th and Saturday, July 18th at 10 a.m.. Tickets for this Second Stage Production can be purchased at the door, and are only $2.00. Perfect entertainment for the entire family!

The Mainstage Production for Bob Inman's "Liberty Mountain" will run as scheduled - July 10, 11, and 18 at 7:30 p.m. and July 12 and 19 at 3 p.m. Tickets can be purchased online at KMLiberty-

Mountain.com!
