CLASS BANQUET

Middletown, April 17.—The Young People's class of the Middletown Christian Sunday school enjoyed a banquet at the home of Miss Virginia Spencer Saturday night, April 14. A profusion of early spring flowers decorated her home for the occasion. Games and contests were enjoyed and the prize for the bean contest was awarded to Miss Bertie Midyette. After the entertainment the guests were invited to the dining room and back porch were tables were arranged for about 40. Those responsible for the success of the evening were: Mrs. Archie Spencer, Misses Lucille, Mabel and Annie L. Silverthorne and Virginia Spencer. The other guests present were: Misses Julia Cox, Henrietta Gibbs, Alma Gibbs, Zula Gibbs, Ruby Mann, Helen Cuthrell, Mgrtis Howard, Pauline Gibbs, Marjorie Cox, Lola Midyette, Lillie M. Gibbs, Bertie Midyette, Irene Midyette, Mamie R. McKinney, Sydney Gibbs, Mina Gibbs, Hazel Payne, Mrs. E. C. Miller; Messrs. Linwood Gibbs, John Silverthorne, Cecil Silverthorne, Otis Mason, Linwood Cuthrell, Hyatt McKinney, Max Mann, Earl Pugh, Hallatt Gibbs, Osmann Cox, Maxwell Cox, Milbern Balance, George Cox, Alvin Spencer, Elbert Gibbs, Wilson Tunnel, Peary Spencer and Beecher Spencer.

Tax Notice Beaufort And Hyde Counties

Attention has been called to the citizens of Beaufort county that a penalty will be charged on all 1933 taxes unpaid on May 1st.
 The Hyde county citizens have been notified that the time for completion of patril payments notes on delinquent taxes has been extended from April 1st to May 1st, and that no further extension will be made.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES

The Senior class presented their Class Day exercises in the Town Hall last night. The exercises were in the form of a reunion ten years hence and depicted the class prophecy. The outstanding parts played were:
 Gladys Meyerowitz, hostess and valedictorian; James Sears, Salutatorian; Lucille Downum, prophetess; Nancy Ruark, historian; Muri Brooks poet; Gertrude Stevenson, giftorian; Hazel Llewellyn, testator.
 The class and school songs were sung. The exercise was original with the members of the class.

"THE EYES OF LOVE" WELL PRESENTED

A number of the high school students under the direction of Prof. Rowe Henry presented a most entertaining play at the City Hall Friday night—"The Eyes of Love." The cast was well selected and although Gladys Meyerowitz had the leading role, that of Gaila Barry, she was excellently supported by the following: Thomas Carawan as Royal Manton, Prof. Henry as Judge Barry, Nancy Ruark as Mrs. Barry, Irving Meyerowitz, "Trusty Jim" and father of Gaila, Lily Mae Jones and Robert Mariner as Reta and Bert, guests in the Barry home; Grace Taylor as Lora, the maid; Muri Brooks as Clark, the butler; and Mrs. Rowe Henry as Carolina, the dusky maid. The proceeds will be used to defray the usual commencement expenses.

DIDN'T ATTEND DANCE

Much to my sorrow I have learned that through ignorance of facts or malicious intent someone has started the rumor that the Reverend Mr. Roe Harris and his wife attended a dance at the time of the Junior-Senior banquet at Belhaven. In justice to Mr. Harris in particular and the public in general, I wish to state that the report is entirely false. Mr. and Mrs. Harris attended our banquet but retired along with many others during the intermission between the banquet and dance.
 Signed:
 Rowe Henry, Principal.
 W. S. Riddick, Committee,
 Mrs. S. J. Peele.

Dr. J. C. Owens Here Sunday

Dr. J. C. Owen of Murfreesboro, noted temperance advocate, is expected to draw a large crowd at the City Hall Sunday night where he is scheduled to appear as the principal speaker at the union services to be held at 8 o'clock. Most of the churches in Belhaven are sponsoring this meeting in the interests of making Belhaven a better place to live.
 A recent movement was started by leading citizens to put our town on the map by developing our commercial enterprises.

Mrs. Frank Hayes Buried Wednesday

Mrs. Frank Hayes of Swan Quarter, who was stricken with paralysis several weeks ago, was taken to her reward last Tuesday night, April 24 at about 2 a. m. without recovering from the stroke. Her body was laid to rest Wednesday in the Soul cemetery, after the services conducted by Rev. Lowe in the Methodist church at Swan Quarter.
 Before her marriage Mrs. Hayes was Miss Maggie Bell. She lived most of her life in Hyde county and was well known and beloved by all.
 Surviving Mrs. Hayes are her husband, Frank Hayes, and her daughter Mrs. Don Harris of Swan Quarter.

ENGELHARD

ENGELHARD GIRLS ARE CHAMPIONS THIS SEASON IN BASKETBALL

The Engelhard girls basketball team has concluded an exceptionally good year with a record of six victorious games, thus becoming champions of Hyde County for this season. They have played two games with each school in the county except the last two scheduled games. These were with Lake Landing and Fairfield but they forfeited them. Four other games were played, two with Fairfield one with Belhaven and one with Washington. The members of the team numbered about twenty, they are: Beulah Mae Williams, Myra Leath Gibbs, Francis Spencer, Margaret Grace, Thelma Swindell, Exadell Cahoon, Eunice Gibbs, Bell McKinney, Mildred Cahoon, Margaret Harris and Ione Harris, but the main team consisted of Rachel Moonney, Milford Spencer and Sidney Gibbs as forwards, Edna Lee McKinney, Lila Mae Cahoon and Viola Rolfer as guards.
 The Hyde county basketball cup for girls for 1934 will be presented to the school at the annual track meet held at Engelhard April 28th. The coach for the Engelhard girls basketball team was Mrs. E. K. Mann who has been the director of athletics during the past two years.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior class of Engelhard high school was host to the Senior class at their annual banquet Saturday evening.

ENGELHARD DEBATERS

We, the debaters of Engelhard, which to express our appreciation to those who have made it possible financially for us to go to Chapel Hill. It has been a pleasure for us to represent our school in this way. Although we were not able to be winners in the contest there, we appreciate this opportunity and we received great inspiration. We, who are not finishing school this year are determined to try much harder to get to Chapel Hill next year.
 Engelhard Debators:
 Mary M. Cahoon, Jean O'Neal, Calla Meade Marshall, Thurman Swindell.

Show Boat Returns Again

The Original Floating Theatre, that was here last year, with Beulah Adams and Charlie Hunter and other old favorites together with some new members is returning here to spend next week with us at the Town Dock with a different show for each night of the week, and from the titles it looks as if there is something interesting in store for everyone, even the most discriminating.
 Besides Beulah Adams and Charlie Hunter, you will remember Jack Jfeaffler, Gladys Pennington, Pat Gallagher and Micky.
 The new members of the cast are Deik Mason, Pearl Austin, Marjorie Copperman and Maude Vale.
 New scenic equipment has been added together with many new novel electrical effects on the stage besides the new interior decorations throughout.

Baseball Dance For CCC Boys

The boys of Company 424, CCC are going to have a baseball team this year that will beat any local team in this section, so they say, and in order that they can do the job in style they are having a dance next Friday at their quarters on Bell Island for the purpose of raising enough money to get some uniforms other than the ones they wear every day.
 All the girls interested in any way in the CCC camp have been requested to bring their "Next-Bests" out to help get their favorites togged out for the season.
