LADIES of Kings Mountain and surrounding areas: Each week, we try to bring to you a recipe that you and your family will enjoy. We know that you too have recipes that you particularly enjoy conjuring up and now we'd like to give you the chance to share it with our readers (as well as with us!)

ABOUT YOUR HOME

Built-ins are the order of the day. Not only the conventional closets but built-in beds, chests book-cases and desks are quite popular. Built-in beds are found in many 16th century European paintings. The Victorian era is remembered by spacious rooms, four poster beds and great wardrobes, but no closets. It was during the 1880's that built-in closets came into general use. The moderns are experts in planned space and wall use. Fine results are obtained in exceedingly small space by good wall use. Anyone building a home today should not overlook the possibility of furniture built into walls.

Mr. & Mrs. Bobby G. Greene of 6140 Midpines, Kings Mtn., a boy, Oct. 1st.

and cabinets are frequently put into a recess in a room. A dressing shelf placed below a mirror on a closet door is useful. Thoughtful closet planning can add much to a home. Closets in old homes can be replanned and made more useful with little expense. Garment bags, shoe bags and hat boxes can be bought in a variety of colors and materials and will help in taking the proper care of your clothes as well as bringing order and attractiveness to an old closet. Even the closet of the man of the house should not be overlooked. Hat boxes and bags in colors suitable for a man will add much to the efficiency of his closet.

In Fashion
Turtle neck sweaters and jackets, zippered in front or buttoned, are shown for men. Some of these jackets have patch pockets and rather large collars.

Velvet slacks are worn with a jacket having a velvet yoke.

Casual shoes go with casual clothes and those with square heels continue their popularity.

Shirtwaists and skirts are quite the in-thing today.

Rebecca Cook Appointed Chief G.E.D. Examiner

Rebecca K. Cook, Learning Center Co-ordinator at Cleveland Technical Institute, has recently received notification from the G.E.D. Testing Service in Washington, D. C. that she has been approved as Chief Examiner of the official G.E.D. Center in Cleveland County.

James Petty, president of Cleveland Tech, submitted Mrs. Cook's name for the appointment which was approved by Jerry Walker, Administrator of the G.E.D. Testing Service.

Bread crumbs
1 egg

Shape potatoes in 4 large ovals. Coat with crumbs, egg and crumbs. Fry in deep fat. Remove tops. Fill with creamed ham or other left-over meat or fish. Replace tops.

Potato-Cheese Scallop

Salt and pepper
2 c milk

According to Mrs. Cook, any adult at least 18 years of age and interested in taking the G.E.D. test would benefit greatly by attending the Cleveland Tech Learning Center to study in preparation for taking the test.

Applications for the G.E.D. test may be acquired at Cleveland Tech and must be submitted to Mrs. Cook at least one week prior to the testing date.

The Self-study Learning Center is open from 8:00 A.M. until 9:00 P.M. from Monday through Thursday and from 8:00 - 12:00 noon on Friday. An instructor is always present to give assistance when needed. The center is essentially an individual study situation in which an adult, 18 or older, may undertake most any level of available subjects.

If you're tried to reduce and failed from the lack of will power, it may mean you need to change your attitude. In the first place, you must really want to lose extra pounds badly enough to endure some uncomfortable days. This desire is the one thing that is the basis of all successful diets. Psychologists tell us that in this department many people have a "mind set." They say that, although you don't want to fail, you fear you will, and you half-way expect to. An extremely nervous person will over-eat because, by drawing a great amount of blood to the digestive tract to digest the food, body tension is relieved. Over-large amounts of food

Adults entering the Learning Center may start study at his present level and move ahead at his own speed. There are no set hours of study and students may come at their own convenience. This program is absolutely free of charge.

There are also services available in the Learning Center such as General Interest, College Preparatory, and Regular Curriculum Programs. Interested persons should contact the Director of Student Personnel or the Learning Center Co-ordinator at Cleveland Tech.

are used as a kind of sedative by some. There are numerous other reasons for over-eating-self-pity, an inferiority complex-the list could go on and on. The important thing is to understand your inability to diet. Once this problem is overcome, you are ready to choose your diet plan. If you want to lose a great deal of weight, it's important that you consult your doctor. He'll tell you how fast to lose weight, the best diet for you, and how much exercise to take during your diet. If you want to lose four or five pounds, you will probably be able to do this by simply reducing your intake of food.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,
I am a retired school teacher but still working in the schools of our county for the past five years. Each year, since retirement, I have given each senior of our county a packet of good literature which they appreciate so much—at least some of them do.

I would like to have your permission to use your letter from Joan who was going to college and was elated to be on her own, and your excellent answer to her. I think this will be good for the seniors.

Hoping to hear from you soon, I am.

E.F.B.--Tenn.
Answer:
I shall be happy to have you use my letter E.F.B. As a matter of fact, one of the rewards of answering letters in this column is that of helping people or in finding someone who likes what we write.

middle-aged couple living in a fairly-well kept home on the outskirts of Brooklyn Heights. Sophie, a housewife, occasionally translates a book while Otto is still a very good lawyer. Their emotional life however, has long diminished with the passing of time, or other reasons of preoccupation. There's many episodes throughout the film which depict their reaction to the mode of life now found in urban residential areas. These are the things that shock and fill their days. It's a little sad to see, through their eyes, the collapsing world around them without the knowledge that they have let their marriage grow stale.
