Hundreds of selected items will bear tags like this -

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS- the longer an item remains unsold, the lower the sale price becomes. HOWEVER- any item may be sold at any point-when-ever any customer decided he or she will pay the current price for it. The price changes will be announced officially by the sound of a gong, denoting the change of time. Many of these items are high-style, floor sample pieces purchased from top manufacturers. Others are basic styles and pieces no longer being made by our suppliers. Early American, Traditional, French and Italian Provincial, Mediterranean - all of these are included in Chinese Auction Merchandise.
