

Central Patriots End Season With Victory

The Central Jr. High Patriots ended their season last Wednesday at Hickory with a convincing 44-6 victory.

The powerful Patriots scored in four plays after the opening kick-off. Don McDevitt carried into the end zone on a 2 yard drive. After recovering a Hickory fumble at the 50 yd. line, quarterback Steve Southwell passed 30 yards to Jeff Jones and on the next play Southwell passed to Tommy Manning for 20 yards and a touchdown. Another Hickory fumble set up the Patriots on the Hickory 32 yd. line. Wendell Jackson swept right end for 32 yards and a Central lead of 22-0. Jim Thompson then took over with a 30 yard run for a touchdown. Tommy Manning completed the scoring in the first half when he intercepted a Hickory pass and went 22 yards for a half time lead of 36-0. Steve Southwell opened the scoring in the second half by running 60 yards in two carries to run the score to the final outcome of 44-6. The Patriots held Hickory to only 5 yards total rushing. Simon McClain, John Yarbrough, Don McDevitt, and Wendell Jackson were outstanding on defense.

State Losses Dim Michaels' Chance For Contract Renewal

By JOHN KILGO
KQ SYNDICATE

It was pretty much written in the wind even before the season started, but Al Michaels being head coach at North Carolina State for more than one year was eliminated when the Wolfpack fell to East Carolina last Saturday.

State now has a 1-6 record and three of the next four games will be played on the road against Penn State, Miami and Clemson. The 'Pack will be lucky to come with one more victory. The Michaels contract supposedly will be reviewed in December.

North Carolina displayed limited offensive fireworks in a 7-3 win over Wake Forest but one of the few bright moments was when Rusty Culbreth stepped into the role of safetyman in fielding punts. He hauled six for 89 yards and twice almost broke away.

"I knew I was going to get the chance," said Culbreth, "I was really pleased." Culbreth had been seeing defensive duty but had not carried the ball in earlier games because of a knee injury. The Tar Heels need Culbreth's speed and shiftiness and he's won deep position for the remainder of the season.

Woody Hayes of Ohio State not only turns out excellent football teams (his Buckeyes are 5-1 this season) but he has moulded his share of coaches. Among the men who played for Hayes are Bo Schembacher of Michigan, Johnny Pont of Indiana, John McVay of Dayton and Carmen Cozza of Yale.

The Buckeyes under Hayes always play a solid schedule featuring Bit Ten teams but Woody ranks 6th among active coaches in total victories. His winning percentage is about 75 per cent with 172 triumphs against 55 losses and 7 ties.

I'm not sure the bookies feel kindly toward the Carolina Cougars of the ABA. The Cougars played at Utah last week and lost by 57 points. They played a second game at Greensboro and the Cougars upset the Stars by two points. Can the home court advantage mean that much? Or did the Cougars toss in the towel after the first period at Utah?

North Carolina's 1946, 1947 and 1948 teams will hold a reunion at Chapel Hill this week and the coach of that stalwart band of men, Carl Snavely, is coming in to re-new acquaintances.

Snavely, now 82, retired from active coaching a number of years ago but he has been quite successful in the car wash business in St. Louis. The single wing, which Snavely pioneered, is all but obsolete in the modern game. A triple-threat back nowadays is a rare individual but Snavely demanded his tail-back be a first-rate kicker, passer and runner. He had one of the best in Charlie (Choo-choo) Justice.

When the Associated Press selected it's 1971 All-Major League team not a single Baltimore Orioles squadman made the list. Which should be a tip-off that those late-season comments by many baseball men declaring the Orioles greater than any of the old Yankee machines was somewhat exaggerated.

Before the World Series, began, Earl Weaver of the Orioles commented that Phil Rizzuto, ace of the Yankees infield for many years, couldn't make his team. Rizzuto laughed it off by saying, "At my age, I couldn't make a Little League team."
