Fawkes was a member of a group of conspirators who plotted to blow up the Protestant Parliament in 1605. The conspiracy was known as the "Gunpowder Plot" because a cellar under Parliament was hired and filled with barrels of gunpowder.

Gun Fawkes was to have lit the fuse, but the plot was discovered and he was caught, tried and hanged, November 5th was the date of his undoing and in England that particular date is known as "Guy Fawkes Day" and it's a great excuse for a lot of fun and celebration. It is this day, rather than Halloween, when the children have a good time before the cold winter weather arrives. Although Halloween is recognized in England, there is no equivalent of "Trick or Treat". Maybe just a little mischief in the air occasionally, and a few ghost stories are remembered.

However, during the days approaching Nov. 5th, children are very busy indeed. First they construct an effigy of Guy Fawkes made from old clothes stuffed with rags or newspapers.

When the Guy has been completed he is carried around the neighborhood from door to door and children beg for "A penny for the Guy". All the pennies collected are then spent on fireworks (firecrackers). Meanwhile the children also collect logs and other fuel - even discarded pieces of furniture and a huge bonfire is built in the middle of a suitable street - preferably a dead end road.

As soon as darkness falls on November 5th, thousands of bonfires are lit all over England. Countless Firecrackers are exploded and when the fire is roaring greatly, the effigy of Guy

Fawkes is tossed onto the fire, and everybody cheers when the traitor is burned again. The fire is also used to roast potatoes and chestnuts and everyone eats other traditional goodies such as parkin (gingerbread) and brandy snaps (a toffee like candy).

If you really are wondering what Guy Fawkes actually looks like, you may appease your curiosity by glancing in the window of Fultons Department Store where a genuine Guy Fawkes is currently residing. S.H.

Newcomers Club For Kings Mtn.?

Due to the recent influx of new residents to Kings Mountain as a result of all the new industries which have located here, it seems that there is a need to have a "Newcomers Club." Tentative plans are underway, but because of the upcoming festive season, the date of the first meeting has been scheduled for Tuesday, 11th of January at the Womens Club building on W. Mountain St.

The club will then meet regularly every second Tuesday in the month. Prospective members will be notified closer to the date and if you are interested in joining this club, please call Mrs. Robert Lee Smith (739-6021) to have your name placed on the mailing list. Anyone who has moved to Kings Mountain during the past two or three years will be eligible to join.

Foreign Visitors In Town

Peter and Rosalind Gwinnett from London, England, are spending this week in Kings Mountain as special guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Bedford.

They attended "British Night" at the Country Club on Saturday - a most appropriate occasion. Peter works for Barclay's Bank in New York and is in the United States for a two year exchange program with the Bank. The Gwinnetts stopped off in Kings Mountain on their way back to New York after a week's vacation on British Tortola in the Virgin Islands. Peter was at school with John Bedford in Bradford, England.

Local Golfers

On Thursday, Nov. 4th the Foothills Golf League Tournament was held at Cleveland Springs Country Club in Shelby. Local golfers who participated were Lib Mayes and Anne Pouchak. Anne tied for 1st low gross in Class C. This was the final tournament for 1971 and tournaments will be resumed in the spring of 1972.
