"Thinking Day" is cele-brated on February 22nd of each year. All over the world Girl Scouts and Girl Guides gather to honor the birthday of both Lord and Lady Baden-

Girls of member countries symbolically join in recognition of the spirit of scouting that unites them in international friendship.

In Kings Mountain, the theme of Thinking Day will be Seven Flags Over Scouting. The seven flags which will fly over the event are the United States Flag, the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts Flag, the Pioneer Girl will represent a member country by displays, songs, dances or national costumes of that country. Samples of food will be given away. Each troop will have the flag of its country on display. All parents of Girl Scouts and the public are invited to attend this event. There is no admission charge. Neighborhood troops who have chosen to participate in this event are listed as follows.

Scout Council Flag, a Brownie Troop Flag, a Junior Troop Flag, a Cadette Troop Flag and a Senior Troop Flag. Each participating troop

Brownie Tr. 1 Bethware, representing Canada. Brownie Tr. 24, North School representing Spain. Brownie Tr. 52, ARP Church, representing Brazil.

Brownie Tr. 50, Bessemer City, representing Brownie Tr. 204, East School representing Israel. Brownie Tr. 212, Grover, representing India. Junior Tr. 37, Grover, re-Junior Tr. 38, Bessemer City representing Kenya.

TO FIND A MAN We view this film with some humor but mostly deep compassion for these young-sters (so typical of today's youth) who, under normal situations, would find growing up a big enough job without having to embrace adult problems.

To Find A Man' handles situation in a fashion you forget it's just acting-t can be any-town U.S.A. Here, 17-year-old Rosalind (Pamela Martin) realizes she's not so sophisticated when she finds herself pregnant. Immediately she thinks of an abortion as the easy way out. That can be more trying than she wants to admit.

Andy (Darren O'Conner), only sixteen, attempts to make the right contacts but this sensitive boy experiences great stress when faced with this adult prob-Rosalind's parents, played by Phyllis Newman and Lloyd Bridges, aren't exactthe concerned parents. But the physician (Tom Ewell) and druggest (Tom Bosley) are well placed in their parts.

In seeing this "GP-rated film" the very young should realize sex is best saved until they're more mature It's a film that is honest, humorous and a bit sad--all in the right places.

GROWING TULIPS

Long considered the "queen" of spring-flower-ing bulbs, the tulip gives ground-level spring accent to overhead flowering dog-wood and azaleas. There are tulips for any desired color scheme. If you want to know more about growing these beautiful flowers, stop by the county extension agent's office and get a copy of N. C. State University Extension Folder No. 289, "Growing Tulips."

STEVE BAITY

Upon returning from New York in 1969, Steve decided the Kings Mountain Little Theatre's production of "The Curious Savage." He has also helped backstage and technically with the product-ions of "Cinderella" and "The Mousetrap".

Cindy Robinson made her stage debut with the Kings Mountain Little Theatre last summer when she played the role of Gloria, gangster's moll, in "Everybody Loves Opal." After helping backstage during the production of "The Mousetrap," Cindy auditioned for and received the role of Carol Wimpley to role of Carol Wimsley in "Surprise"! Carol is the young somewhat inexperienced and bewildered college student grand-daughter of the plays main character, Ella Wimsley, retired star of silent movies. Cindy is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Sam Robinson and she is a sopho-more at Kings Mountain High School, where she is an honor roll student.

Mike Muscat will be remembered for his performance as

CINDY ROBINSON

Christopher Wren in the "The Mousetrap." Following that challenging role, Mike has accepted an even more challenging task of playing two separate characters in "Surprise!" He will be portray-ing "The Stranger" who is actually an escaped inmate of Peaceful Hollow Rest Home and he will also play the role of Morgan Crux, the hippie boyfriend of Carol Wimsley. Mike comes from Gastonia perience at Hunter Huss High School and the Gastonia Little Theatre. He is presently attending the Carolina School of Broadcasting in Charlotte and he hopes to be a D.J. by the summer. In April, he will be appearing at Ovens Auditorium in Charlotte in "Youth In" which will feature talent from Mecklenburg colleges and high schools.

"Youth In" is sponsored by W.B.T.V. and the Interact Club of Charlotte. Mike will be doing a dramatic reading from "John Brown's Body" by Stephen Vincent Benet. In addition to his school work, Mike is also taking private copywriting lessons from Vivian Harris, head copywrit-er of W.B.T.V. Mike, his wife, Vicki and baby son live in Gastonia.
