

Students Attend Rap Sessions

During the past week, KMHS students have been allowed to attend rap sessions during their study halls.

These informal meetings, supervised by a faculty member and also attended by a Human Relations Committee member, have provided students an outlet in which to voice their complaints or problems.

Walters and waitresses for the Junior-Senior prom have been voted on from the sophomore class, but final run-offs have not been tallied as of yet.

The KMHS track team will participate in a meet against Crest and Burns high schools at Crest on Tuesday afternoon, March 21.

The Gardner-Webb Peace Singers presented a religious musical program during an afternoon assembly at KMHS on Thursday, March 16. Bert Smith and Doug Byers, two members of the group, are former KMHS students.

Band Concert Is Thursday

The Kings Mountain High School band and Freshman band will present a concert Thursday night in the Central School Auditorium at 7:45.

Numbers presented will be those prepared for the State Band Festival Contest. No admission to be charged.

Award Winning Design!

Debbie gets a big hug from Cheryl Gassaway who is modeling Debbie's winning design.

Debbie Brown Completes Studies At Massey Fashion Institute

Debbie Brown has completed her studies at the Massey Fashion Institute in Atlanta, Georgia. She was an honor graduate, was named to the Dean's List, the President's List and was elected to "Who's Who Among American Junior Colleges and Universities." Debbie spent one quarter of her studies at Massey Junior College in London, England and also participated in the New York Fashion Study Tour.

Debbie was a design winner at the Gold Medalion Awards Banquet, 1972, which was held at the Regency Hyatt House, Atlanta. Debbie's design was honored as one of the 4 top submissions out of 73 designs which competed for the awards.

The panel of judges were all designers--Ann Fogarty of New York, Kasper of Joan Leslie, Will Smith of Digits, Shanghai born Ann Tjian of Tjian, Ltd. and from Rick's in Atlanta, fashion director, Sol Kent. Debbie and the other winning students were interviewed on WQXI Television showing their designs. Debbie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill H. Brown, Kings Mountain.

Trustee

Terry Sanford, former N.C. Governor, seeking U.S. presidency:

"I am not satisfied with the way American government is handling our problems."

According to Dan Camp, Extension Director, Speed Reading is designed to help average readers become better readers as well as increasing comprehension ability. Businessmen, teachers, homemakers and others will learn techniques to increase their rate of reading, how to skim and scan effectively, and how to apply these newly learned skills to the printed page. Due to limited enrollment, anyone wishing to register for this free course should call Cleveland Tech, 482-4378, for an enrollment reservation.
