We Can't Take Much More...

My column last week was about re-runs. Little did I know, at the time of the writing, I was going to experience a similar kind of re-run. I was not alone in that experience.

The brief announcement over the radio about the shooting of Governor George Wallace, was short and it was shocking. Later that evening, more details were announced and then we saw it all happen on T.V. It was like seeing a re-run of the murder of Lee Harvey

Oswald by Jack Ruby. In front of our very eyes by way of the T.V. camera we saw the attempted assassination take place. And we saw it again and again in slow motion and on later news bulletins.

It was like seeing a re-run as the Governor's wife bent over him as he was prostrate on the ground. She had blood on her outfit just as Jackie Kennedy did after her husband's assassination in Dallas.

It was like seeing a re-run of another presidential candidate, Robert Kennedy, who was assassinated following a campaign speech and his assailant was also grappled by members of the entourage right on the spot.

It was like seeing a re-run as the suspect's father spoke to newsmen just as Lee Harvey Oswald's mother had done. Let us hope that this is the last of the re-runs. I don't think the American public can take many more.

WEEKLY RECIPE

Blueberry Pie

Joy Etters

2 envelopes Dream Whip topping mix
8 oz. softened cream cheese
3 cups powdered sugar
1 can blueberry pie filling
1/2 cup chopped pecans
2 baked, cooled pie crusts

Sprinkle pecans over both pie crusts. Prepare topping according to the directions on the back of the box. When stiff, turn beaters on low speed and add powdered sugar. Pour in add softened cream cheese. Gradually add powdered sugar. Pour into pie crusts, top with pie filling and refrigerate. The two pies can also be made with other pie fillings such as strawberry, apple, cherry, or lemon.

At the start of the season for fresh blueberries, Joy Etters has given us a recipe for blueberry pie. It uses a can of blueberry filling or you can make your own filling from the fresh berries.

Familiar Faces Returning To KM Theatre

By SYLVIA HOLMES

Four familiar faces will be returning to the stage for the Kings Mountain Little Theatre's production of "Ladies in Retirement" in June.

Playing the lead role of Ellen Creed will be Jo Ann (Boots) McDaniel. Audiences will remember Boots as Mrs. Savage in "The Curious Savage," the stepmother in "Cinderella" and Ella Wimsley in "Surprise." Boots directed "Barefoot in the Park" in the fall of 1970 and she directed "The Mousetrap" the following year.

The role of Louisa Creed is being played by Nancy Wiesener, a rising senior and member of the National Honor Society at Kings Mountain High School. This is Nancy's second time on stage, but she has worked in numerous capacities backstage. She has been stage manager, prompter and has done make up and light and sound effects. Nancy played the part of the enigmatic and mysterious Miss Caswell in "The Mousetrap."

"Mousetrap" and he recently directed "Surprise." Joe is employed by Lithium Corporation of America. "Ladies in Retirement" will be presented on Friday and

Saturday, June 9th and 10th and again on Friday and Saturday, June 16th and 17th. There will be no Sunday afternoon performances because of the lack of window curtains at Park Grace School Auditorium will prevent the room from being darkened for matinee performances. Stephen H. Baily is the director of the current production.
