Of Interest To Women...By Sylvia Holmes

There is finally a smell of summer in the air. The fragrance of honeysuckle penetrates the cool damp evening air. Soon the scent of magnificent magnolia blossoms will hang heavy in the still, warm night.

The red roses lining the railroad tracks are at their very prettiest. Grass is very green and will remain so until the summer heat burns it brown and stiff.

The noises of summer are arriving. Bird calls increase in volume and number. The hum of the insect world is ever present.

The straight rising smoke from a newly lit barbecue grill puffs into the air and charcoal with hickory adds another scent to the atmosphere for our appreciation.

Winter clothes are stored away and last year's summer togs are frowned upon with dismay. Time to stock up on beachwear and thin, cool garments.

Rooms become cluttered with summer paraphernalia - fins, masks, sunglasses, beach towels, croquet sets, badminton rackets, air mattresses.

When the last day of school is over all semblance of household regimentation ceases. Alarms too no longer sound at the crack of dawn. There is no homework to be paved over in a last minute effort to improve grades. Daytime television increases. The refrigerator door works overtime and the freezer can hardly keep pace with much needed ice-production. Small bodies sleep late and resist bedtime at all

WEEKLY RECIPE

BARBECUE SAUCE
by Doris Howze

As this is the season for outdoor cooking, Doris Howze has given us this recipe for barbecue sauce. It makes 10 gallons of sauce. It keeps well and can be frozen if desired. Next week we will publish another of her recipes which uses barbecue sauce.

3/4 cup brown sugar
4 tsp. paprika
3 tsp. salt (or to taste)
1/2 cup prepared mustard
2 tsp. cayenne pepper
2 tsp. red pepper
3 tsp. ground cumin
2 tsp. celery flakes
1 cup Worcestershire sauce
1 1/2 cups vinegar
1 46 oz. can tomato juice
4 15 oz. cans tomato sauce
4 large onions grated
10 or 12 large pods of garlic, grated fine
2 cups salad oil
3 tsp. black pepper
2 tsp. parsley flakes
1 tsp. tabasco
3 tsp. chili powder
10 lbs. chicken livers, gizzards and hearts
4-6 cups water

Thoroughly cook the livers, gizzards and hearts in water. When done, save broth and grind all the meat. Add broth to ground meat and also add 4-6 cups water. Add all other ingredients and cook for one and a half hours. Makes about 10 gallons. Put in small containers.

Jolly - Gillis Pledge Vows Saturday

Central United Methodist Church provided the setting Saturday evening for a 7:30 p.m. formal wedding uniting Miss Cynthia Ann Jolly of Kings Mountain and Michael Haywood Gillis of Charlotte.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Paschal Waugh, assisted by Rev. Herbert Gar-mon of Charlotte, a former minister.

The altar of the church was arranged with pink snapdragons, white Garza chrysanthemums, gypsophylla and tree candelabra set with cathedral candles.

Mrs. J. N. McClure was organist for the program of nuptial music and vocal selections were by Robert Cashion and Mrs. Evelyn Chambers. They sang "One Hand, One Heart" before the ceremony and Mrs. Chambers sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

Acolytes were Tyler Kiser of Bessemer City and Christopher Caune of Charlotte, cousins of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original design of ivory silk chiffon and imported peau d'ange lace over silk faille. The lace bodice was fashioned with scalloped portrait neckline and lace scallops over pink satin ribbon defined the slightly raised waistline. Long lace sleeves had points at the wrist. A wide lace panel extended down the skirt front and gathered back fullness spread to a Chapel train. Her formal length veil of Ivory English tulle was caught to a lace camelot cap traced in pearl clusters and trimmed with pink satin ribbon and she carried a colonial nosegay of pink roses, stephanotis and gypsophylla caught with pink streamers.

Mrs. Dan Wallace of Shelby attended the bride as matron of honor and Miss Jo Ann Dean of Kings Mountain was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Myra Ware, Miss Julia Bowers, Miss Vicky Bell, all of Kings Mountain; Miss Leigh Ann Kiser of Bessemer City, cousin of the bride; and Mrs. Charles Gillis, Jr. of Rockingham, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Jean Caune of Charlotte and Miss Laura Boyd of Kings Mountain, niece and nephew of the bridegroom were flower girl and ringbearer.

All the attendants wore formal length gowns of pastel pink chiffon and Ivory Venise lace styled with a high neckline outlined with a band of ivory lace threaded with pink satin ribbon. Bands of ribbon and lace created a bib effect on the front bodice. A miniature satin bow with streamers defined the raised waistline and full bishop sleeves had deep lace trimmed cuffs. The column skirt had flowing back panels for extra fullness. They carried nosegays of pink Frenched carnations, white garza mums, pink sweetheart roses and gypsophylla caught with eggshell ribbon.

Charles A. Gillis, Jr. of Rockingham was his brother's best man. Groomsmen included Jimmy Jolly, brother of the bride; Scott Cloninger and Frank Parmater, all of Kings Mountain; Jim Wood of Charlotte; Bob Taylor of Rockingham, cousin of the bridegroom; and Bob Boger of Charlotte.

Mrs. John Caune of Charlotte aunt of the bride and Miss Gloria Waugh kept the bride's register of the vestibule of the church.

Mrs. Ken Kiser of Bessemer City, aunt of the bride, directed the wedding.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully appointed reception in the church fellowship hall. The pink and white theme of the wedding was carried out in decorative details and in refreshments.

Assisting in receiving and entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Jolly, Jr., Mrs. Clyde Jolly, Miss Kay

Jolly, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Jolly, Miss Elizabeth Stewart, Mrs. Jim McGinnis, Mrs. Owen Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Franklin, Mrs. Larry Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kiser, and Mrs. Paul McGinnis.

For a trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C. the bride wore a pink polyester coat-dress made by her maternal grandmother and matching accessories.

Charlotte will be home for the newlyweds. They will reside at 915 Ideal Way.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Eugene Jolly of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School and completed two years study at Gaston College. Prior to her marriage she was employed by McGinnis Department Store. She is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Roberts and Mrs. Oranrel Jolly and the late Clarence L. Jolly, Sr. of Kings Mountain.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Charles A. Gillis, Sr. of Rockingham and the late Mr. Gillis. He is a graduate of Rockingham High School and attended Wingate College and central Piedmont at Charlotte. He is employed by Andrews Music Company in Charlotte.

Wedding guests included the following from out-of-town: Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Haywood of Rockingham; Mrs. Charles Hinson of Aberdeen; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. Emma Warwick of Rock-

The Col. Fredrick Hamblight Chapel, DAR will meet Wednesday, June 7 at the home of Mrs. Bob Maner, Mrs. Charles A. Neisler will have the program.

JOHN INGRAM

AS YOUR INSURANCE COMMISSIONER WILL

Clean Up The Car Insurance Mess

John Ingram pledges to the people of North Carolina

- To reduce car insurance for all safe drivers
- To abolish the present discriminatory assigned risk plan and substitute a fair insurance plan whereby every licensed driver, YOUNG or OLD will maintain continuous insurance without living in fear of cancellation
- To abolish the under 25 category for youthful male drivers which discriminates against safe young male drivers and their parents
- To increase the safe driving discount from 10 percent to 30 percent, thereby reducing the rates of every safe driver in North Carolina
- To abolish discrimination against every safe driver, YOUNG or OLD, and rate all persons on the basis of their individual driving record.
- To support any responsible plan to reduce car insurance including a responsible No-Fault Plan

State Representative John Ingram has worked for the people and not for the Car Insurance Industry
