LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,
I am a single woman and I live alone in a corner house left to me by my parents who are dead. I enjoy gardening and take a pride in keeping my lawn and garden in good shape but during the past few months I have been upset by some children who have moved into a new apartment house near-by.
These children cut across my lawn, ride bicycles over it and step on my flower beds. One Sunday when I stayed home from church, I heard a commotion outside and discovered about a dozen boys having a fight in the middle of my front yard. What is the answer to such a situation? I have asked them to stay off the grass but it has no effect whatsoever. There is a playground in the neighborhood so there is really no excuse for them to use my yard as a playground.

Disgusted—N.J.

Answer:
The fault lies with parents who fail to teach their children not to trespass on other people's property. When my boys were small I allowed them to use my yard as a playground as I thought it more important than having a beautiful lawn but after they grew up I had a great deal of difficulty with children who had careless parents.

The only answer seems to be a fence or a hedge.
Louisa.

HEALTH - HOME - BEAUTY

By April Rhodes

A barefoot romp in sand or grass is a good toner for your feet.

A word of caution is in order in this age of the aerosol-type sprays. Underarm deodorant sprays should not be inhaled. The same goes for hair sprays and body colognes.

A small piece of cotton stuffed in the fingers of rubber gloves will help prevent holes from long fingernails.

Add sparkling highlights to your hair by adding the juice of a lemon to your final rinse water and dry in the sun.

To prevent streaks on your wall, place thumbtacks along the lower underside of a picture frame.

Join the fun crowd, cycle for fun and health.

When Mr. Bowles came to Shelby he was entertained at an exclusive luncheon at The North Lake Country Club. When Mrs. Bowles visited Shelby she was honored at a tea.

When Mr. Bowles came to Kings Mountain, he was entertained at a steak supper at the Royal Villa Motel (were you invited?).

When Pat Taylor came to Cleveland County he visited Hunter School (a school for handicapped children), the Cleveland County School offices, Farm offices, and the Cleveland County Technical School. Later in the day he had a picnic lunch with friends at Ledford's Apple Orchard.

When Mrs. Taylor visited Cleveland County she spent a great deal of her time meeting women and men who were working in industrial plants and retail stores in Cleveland County.

County government is your business.

Your support will be respected.

Go-Forth with Goforth for County Commission.

I believe that county government has become such a large business that we must have a trained specialist to help County Commissions, help save county tax payers money.

GOFORTH

Go-Forth with Goforth so Cleveland County can have county government that would look and listen to all advice offered.

A comparison between Congressman Nick Galifianakis and his principal opponent for the U. S. Senate.

When you compare Congressman Galifianakis and Senator Jordan, a number of important differences are immediately apparent.
For example, although Congressman Galifianakis is more than 30 years younger, his legislative and congressional experience almost equals that of Senator Jordan.
Another important difference is Congressman Galifianakis' experience in the State Legislature. During six years as a representative from North Carolina's heartland, he gained a thorough knowledge of the needs of our state. It was this experience, gained on the state level, that enabled him to become one of North Carolina's most effective congressmen.
If we're serious about wanting seniority in the U.S. Senate, we must make an investment now in leadership that can solve our problems today and in the years ahead. We must elect Nick Galifianakis to the U.S. Senate. It's our future.

LET'S SEND NICK TO THE SENATE
