

Students Forming FCA Unit

Students at Kings Mountain High are organizing a Fellowship of Christian Athletes chapter at the school.

Faculty advisor for the group will be Steve Baker. The dues of $3 per year will be used to obtain films and materials for programs, according to Darrell Van Dyke, chief organizer of the group.

The group hopes to have special guests speakers for their night meetings. Athletes and cheerleaders interested in joining the group should pay their dues as quickly as possible to Baker.

Mrs. Klepper Joins

Hamrick Real Estate

Mrs. George Klepper of Kings Mountain is now associated in real estate sales with Larry D. Hamrick, Realtor of Kings Mountain.

North Carolina Real Estate Brokers license was issued last September to Mrs. Klepper after she successfully passed the Real Estate Brokers examination. Mrs. Klepper successfully completed the Real Estate Course at Cleveland Tech in the Spring of 1973 and also completed Real Estate Residential Appraising at Cleveland Tech in December 1973.

In announcing her association with his office,

Beals 79 Years Young

Mrs. Beatrice Patterson, of Rt. 4, Kings Mountain, was honored on her 79th birthday, Sun., Feb. 17 with a special dinner at her home.

The dinner was prepared by Mrs. Lottie Bell Falls and consisted of baked chicken, ham, baby peas, rice and gravy, hot rolls, jel-salad, coffee and fruit punch. Following the dinner, cake was served buffet style, to the many friends, relatives and children present.

Mrs. Patterson's daughters, Mrs. S.P. Campbell and Mrs. Virginia Byers of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Catherine Davis of Spartanburg served as hostesses for the occasion.

Mrs. Patterson expressed her gratefulness for the many gifts she received and for the fellowship of her friends that called her to renew her thoughts of her once active and eager participation in mission, church and community services.

She is a member of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church, a former president of the Ebenezer Women's Mission and a member of the Heroines of Jericho.

Mrs. Patterson is the wife of Jasper Patterson, Sr. and they are the parents of seven boys and five girls.

Groom's Parents Are Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds Sr. hosted a pre-rehearsal dinner at Wren's Cafeteria in Grover for the wedding party of Cathy Marlene Cash and John Reynolds Jr.

There were 30 persons present at the 7 p.m. dinner. The head table held a centerpiece of pink snaps, daisies and white mums accented with baby's breath. On either side of the table were three-branch candelabra with pink tapers. All tables were covered with white linen cloths.

The bridal couple presented gifts to ushers and attendants following the dinner.

'Swiss Family' To Play March 7 In Gastonia

The National Theatre Co. will present "Swiss Family Robinson" by Johann Wyss, Thurs., March 7 at Ashbrook auditorium in Gastonia.

The program will be sponsored by the Gardner Park School PTA. Showtime is 7:30 p.m. and all seats will be $2.25.

Two Bridal Couples Feted By The McGills

Two bridal couples in as many weeks have been special guests of honor at dinner parties hosted by Mr. and Mrs. John L. McGill of Kings Mountain.

On Fri., Feb. 15 The McGills played host to Miss Barbara Hord and Corky Fulton, who will be married March 16. Miss Ava Ware served as co-hostess for the three-course dinner party.

The table was decorated with hand-painted china and with a centerpiece of pink carnations. A corsage of pink carnations was presented the bride-to-be and a devotion book to the bridegroom-to-be. The couple was also presented wedding gifts before leaving the party.

Other guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. W.S. Fulton and Dr. and Mrs. D.F. Hord.

On Fri., Feb. 22 The McGills entertained Miss Grace Moore and Doyte Phifer at a two-course dinner party. Miss Ware again served as co-hostess.

Grace and Doyte plan an April wedding.

The table decorations were of camillas and the bride-to-be was presented a corsage of camillas. The groom-to-be was given a devotion book. This couple also received wedding gifts from their hosts. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Moore, Mr.

and Mrs. Marriott Phifer and Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Edwards.

VISITORS

Mrs. Ray S. Williamson of Jackson, Tenn., was the guest in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Humes Houston the week of Feb. 25. Mrs. Williamson is the aunt of Mrs. Houston.

SMITH Walgreen AGENCY DRUGS CARNIVAL OF VALUES

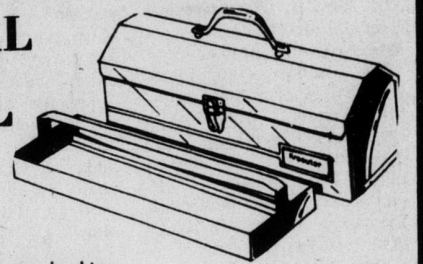

"HOLD-UP" ADHESIVE MATS as seen on TV

GLASS BELL

'10.95 VALUE - LARGE SIZE METAL TOOL BOX

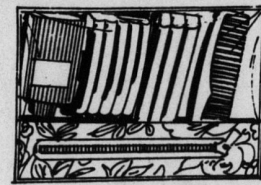

Sturdy tool box in popular hip-roof style. Separate lift-out tote tray with carrying bar and full length partition. Ample room below tray for other tools.

$5.99

WONDA BRUSH

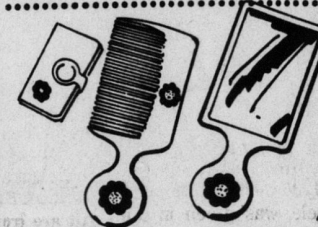

99c Value

Ladies' COSMETIC TRAVEL KIT

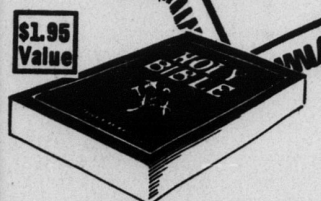

MIRACLE HAIR TRIMMER SHAVER

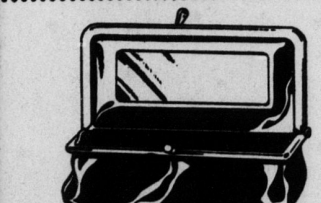

TWIN VANITY SET

FANTASTIC VALUES YOUR CHOICE 2 FOR $1.00

HOLY BIBLE

Compact CARRY-ALL with Mirror

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY

FEATHER DUSTER

Whiskey Bubble GLASSES

10-Piece SCREWDRIVER Set

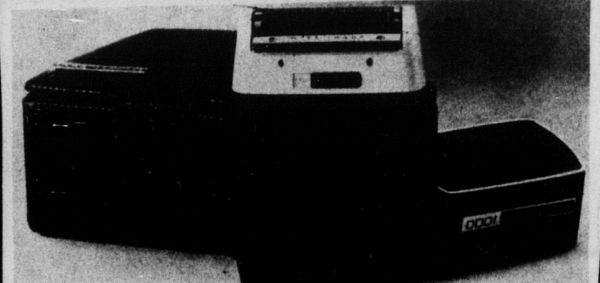

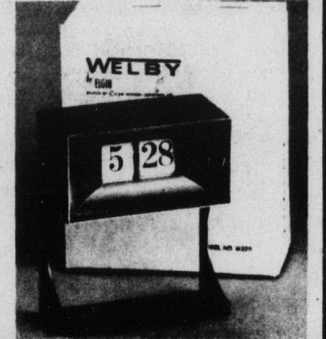

PUFFER KITES HIGH FLYING INFLATABLE 3 SIZES PRICED FROM 88c

500 FT. CORD 39c

ILLUMINATED DIGITAL CLOCK SPECIAL $6.88

Hangs or Stands, 9" high, 8" wide, 4" deep. List $19.95.

RONSON ELECTRIC SHAVERS $24.95 LIST MODEL 1000 $12.95

1/4 INCH ELECTRIC DRILL

2.6 rpm drill with geared key chuck. 2000 rpm-no-load speed, 3-conductor power cord.

SPECIAL $8.88

Photo by Gary Stewart

NEW MEMBERS - The three ladies pictured above were inducted into membership in the Kings Mountain Woman's Club at its meeting Monday night at the club building on Mountain

Street. Left to right, they are Mrs. Nancy Allen, Mrs. Mary Wade Smith and Mrs. Jo Ann Smith.

REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL

	JOINS SALES STAFF
--	-------------------------	--

MRS. MARY KLEPPER has recently joined the sales staff with Larry Hamrick, REALTOR with offices located at Warlick Insurance Agency. Mary is fully licensed as a North Carolina Real Estate Broker, having passed her license test in 1973. She has completed courses in real estate and in real estate residential appraisal work and is well qualified to serve your real estate needs. She resides with her husband, George, at Woodbridge Subdivision and she invites your calls at 482-0950 or at her office, 739-3611.

LARRY D. HAMRICK,
REALTOR

Offices At Warlick Insurance Agency
110 W. Mountain St.
Kings Mountain, N.C.
Phone 739-3611

SMITH Walgreen AGENCY DRUGS

OPEN 9 A M TO 9 P M DAILY KM PLAZA, KINGS MOUNTAIN, N.C. OPEN 9 A M TO 9 P M DAILY