

Shower Honors Grace

Grace Moore, bride-elect of Doyt Phifer, was honored at a miscellaneous bridal shower Saturday at the home of Mrs. Frank Moore on Waco Rd.

Approximately 30 guests dropped in between 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Donald Dixon and Mrs.

Richard Parsley, who presented the bride-elect with a canister and salad set.

A color scheme of yellow was carried throughout in the decorations. The table had a white lace cloth over yellow and the cutglass punch bowl contained yellow banana punch. The other appointments were yellow snapdragons, shasta daisies of yellow and white.

Guests were served yellow cake squares, ham and cheese pickups and mixed nuts from a silver service.

Grace and Doyt will be married April 20.

Mrs. Holmes Aids New GS Trainees

Mrs. Raymond Holmes recently returned from Atlanta where she assisted in a training course for new Girl Scout council presidents, vice presidents and executives.

The course was held Tuesday through Friday last week and 34 GS officials were enrolled in the program held at the Travel Lodge at Executive Park.

Mrs. Holmes is president of the Pioneer Girl Scout Council and resides in Kings Mountain.

Honors Couple

Mr. and Mrs. S. Robert Suber, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Finger and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Finger gave a dinner Friday night for Miss Barbara Hord and Corky Fulton who plan a March 16 wedding.

The dinner began at 7:30 p.m. at the Suber home on Phifer Rd. with 30 people in attendance.

Punch was served in the den followed by the buffet dinner.

The color scheme throughout the home was spring flowers in green and white.

The bride-elect was given a pewter pitcher and a yellow shoulder corsage by the host couples.

Guests included Dr. and Mrs. D.F. Hord and Mr. and Mrs. W.S. Fulton, Jr.

Barbara, Corky Are Honored

Barbara Hord and Corky Fulton were honored Sunday at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D.E. Tate, Crescent Cr.

The couple will be married Saturday.

Eighteen guests were invited to the Tate home, which was decorated with pink nuns and carnations. They were served punch in the den. The livingroom table was decorated with floating candles. The dining room table, from which a buffet dinner was served, was decorated with lighted tapers and a bridal doll. Place settings for the honorees were marked with engraved napkin rings.

The couple was presented gifts of crystal by their hosts.

Recipe Of The Week

This week's recipe is for those special dinner occasions and is recommended by Mrs. Mary Belle Webb.

LONDON BROIL
Three pounds top round steak, half to two inches thick. Make marinade consisting of:

three-fourths cup vegetable oil,
half cup red wine vinegar
one tablespoon herb seasoning

Prick steak, sprinkle with meat tenderizer. Place in marinade, turning every 15 minutes. Allow to stand four hours in marinade.

Charcoal on grill over hot coals about 45 minutes, searing both sides. Baste with marinade. Slice diagonally, salt and pepper and serve.

If prepared in oven, broil 10-15 minutes on each side.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Noel B. Webster of Raleigh announce the birth of a son, Brett Ketner, Sun., Mar. 3. The boy weighed 10 pounds, six ounces at birth in Rex Memorial Hospital. The first born is the grandson of J.W. Webster and late Ruby Webster and great-grandson of Mrs. Rena Dellinger of Kings Mountain. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ketner of Kannapolis.

At Kiwanis

Anderson Outlines Park Programs

Jim Anderson, park historian at Kings Mountain National Park, was featured speaker at last Thursday's Kiwanis Club dinner meeting.

Anderson told the Kiwanians of the summer programs the park sponsors and of the information and programs available for park visitors.

On Sunday afternoons during June, July and August the park sponsors public demonstrations of a Torie Camp, Anderson said. "We try to show the typical camp life, how food was cooked, the utensils used, the equipment used everyday, the costumes.

"Local people and some from other communities help us," he continued. "There is Jeff Hedden and Hilda Fowler from Kings Mountain, Phil Francis of Grover, Betty Barnes of Clover and Dan Gold of Blacksburg. They dress in authentic costumes for the demonstrations."

Anderson said the park also tries to show how the mountain man lived in those days, his weapons, his way of life. And on occasion there are even musket firing demonstrations. Slide programs are available on weekends for visitors.

Anderson, a Morganton native, has been here for the past four years. He has been in the park service for nine years.

Tonight's Kiwanis dinner meeting at the Kings Mountain Woman's Club will feature Mrs. Helen Hendricks as speaker. She will discuss the KM Senior Citizens organization and its activities.
