

Grace, Doyt Exchange Vows

Miss Mary Grace Moore and married Sat., Apr. 20 in an 8
Doyt Butler Phifer were p.m. double ring ceremony at

MRS. DOYT BUTLER PHIFER

Patterson Grove Baptist Church.

Officiating the candlelight service was the Rev. Richard Plyler. Mrs. Wayne Dellinger was the organist and Mrs. Allen Dixon, vocalist.

The couple met under an arch of candles and branch candelabra. The altar was decorated with buckets of palms and yellow and white spring flowers arranged in trees.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original design gown created of silk organza and imported venise lace posed over faille taffeta. The lace bodice was fashioned with a sheer yoke outlined with lace petals and topped with a high ruffle neckline underscored with lace florets. Full bishop sleeves accented with garlands of lace with deep lace trimmed cuffs and ruffles at the wrists. The A line skirt enhanced with lace sprays and finished with a hemline flounce bordered with lace and extended around the chapel length train. The chapel length veil was of double layers of English tulle applied with venise lace sprays and caught to a venise Camelot cap.

The bride carried a cascade of yellow roses, lillies of the valley, ivy, mums and a white center orchid with yellow throat.

The matron of honor was Mrs. David H. Smith Jr. of Chapel Hill, the bride's sister. She wore a yellow and green floral organza with empire waist, butterfly sleeves with ruffle (or flounce) at bottom of the skirt. She carried a white basket of yellow mums, baby's breath and ivy with yellow streamers.

"I'm running for the United States Senate because I believe we can do something in Washington about inflation, crime, drug abuse and health care. I believe the Federal Government has spent too much time looking for blame and not enough time looking for solutions to these problems. I would be proud to serve as your Senator and would appreciate your support."
