Oak Grove Memorial Day Set

Sunday is Memorial Day at Oak Grove Baptist Church. Rev. Russell Hinton, pastor, will deliver the sermon at the 11 o'clock worship hour and picnic lunch will be spread at the noon hour on the church grounds.

Rev. Hinton, "This is a day we pause and acknowledge our heritage and remember those who have been a part of our life". He said members of the church, former members and friends are invited to participate in the day's activities.

Annual Reunion Scheduled

Annual reunion of the Classes of 1934-50 of Bethware School will be held Saturday, May 24, at 7 p. m. in the school cafeteria.

Pack a picnic basket with goodies and tea and bring a classmate with you, said a spokesman. Former teachers are also invited to attend.

Members of the Committee on arrangements are Mrs. Bonnie Price of Boiling Springs, Mrs. Menzell Phifer, Mrs. Lamar Herndon, Mrs. Charles Fisher, Mrs. Eugene Patterson and Mrs. Ted Ledford, all of Kings Mountain.

AUXILIARY TEA - Mrs. Bob Southwell, left, receives punch from Mrs. Marvin Teer at the First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall. The Orientation Tea was held to sign-up new members and volunteers for the Auxiliary.

Rescue Auxiliary, New And Active Organization

One of the newest and busiest clubs for women in the city is the Auxiliary to the Kings Mountain Rescue Squad which recently reorganized.

The Auxiliary is open to all wives of members of KM Rescue Squad and meets monthly, on first Tuesday evenings at 7 p. m. in the homes of members.

Last Tuesday's meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Wanda Bridges, Secretary-Treasurer, and members made plans to sponsor the sale of family portraits to earn money for Squad equipment. President Cynthia Anderson presided over business of the meeting which included the election of Mrs. Judy Stewart as Vice-President.

Monthly programs will be a feature of the gatherings and members will plan projects for benefit of the Squad, said Mrs. Stewart.

Mrs. Rita Cox will be hostess to the June meeting. Mrs. Bridges was assisted in serving a dessert course at refreshment time.

Robin Saunders Has BS Degree In Nursing

Robin Alane Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Saunders, Jr. of Charlotte, former Kings Mountain resident, received her B.S. in Nursing Saturday morning in 11 o'clock commencement exercises at the University of South Carolina in Columbia, S. C.

Miss Saunders will be employed in the Cardiac Unit of Richland Hospital at Columbia.

She is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Saunders, Sr. and Mrs. M. L. Houser, all of Kings Mountain, and niece of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Poston of Kings Mountain, all of whom attended the commencement program and luncheon honoring Miss Saunders in Quail Run Clubhouse. Other guests were her sisters, Miss Shannon Saunders of Charlotte and Mrs. Steve Bell of Kings
