

Graduates Cum Laude From Appalachian SU

RENEE GOINS

D. Renee Goins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Goins of Kings Mountain, graduated cum laude June 1 from Appalachian State University with B.A. in Political Science and minor in Business Administration.

Miss Goins is a 1971 graduate of Kings Mountain High School.

While obtaining her B.A. degree, she served nine months as an intern in the local governments of Kings Mountain, three months, and Iredell County, six months. She is presently working with the State of North Carolina in the Department of Intergovernmental Relations. She plans to attend the University of Georgia in September as a research assistant while pursuing her master's degree in Public Administration. Her professional goal is to become a local government manager.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late R. P. Poag wish to thank the nurses, doctors and all the staff of KM Hospital, all the friends and neighbors who were so kind during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. The beautiful floral tributes and food you shared with us is very much appreciated.

FIREMEN REPORT

Bethlehem Volunteer Fire Department answered only four calls during the month of May as firemen reported a total of 120 manhours, including 95 manhours on training and 25 manhours on calls. Firemen extinguished one grass fire, one house fire, one trash container fire and stood by at Midpines Community when power lines were down.

SETTING THE SCENE—Jimmy Houston (back to camera) explains the scene, which was shot Monday at Wade Ford, Kings Mountain, to Earl Owensby and Morris Ramsaur. The scene for the current EO Motion Picture Production — "The Death Driver" — involves the donation of a car to thrill show driver Rex Randolph (Owensby) by Wade Ford Co. In the scene Randolph is upset with Ramsaur because Wade's name is bigger than his on the door. The car is destined to be jumped 30 feet from a ramp, crashed through a burning building and blown to pieces by dynamite.

Area Deaths And Funerals

MRS. J. P. MAUNEY

Funeral services for Mrs. Myrtle Kelly Mauney, 62, wife of Dr. J. P. Mauney, Kings Mountain veterinarian, were conducted Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. from Central United Methodist Church of which she was a member.

Her pastor, Rev. Robert Allen, officiated at the final rites, and interment was in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

Mrs. Mauney died Sunday night in Cleveland Memorial Hospital at Shelby after illness of several years.

A native of Winston Salem, she was daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Kelly.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, are two sons, Samuel K. Mauney of Gastonia and Jacob P. Mauney, Jr. of Kings Mountain; one brother, D. G. Kelly, Jr. of Charlotte; one sister, Mrs. Jeanette K. Alexander of Winston-Salem; and two grandchildren.

Active pallbearers were Charles F. Mauney, Glee E. Bridges, Jack Hauser, Zeb Plonk, Dan Finger and Joseph R. Smith.

MRS. TOM ROBERTS

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruby Ware Roberts, 69, wife of Tom Roberts, were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. from Central United Methodist Church of which she was a member.

Her pastor, Rev. P. H. Waugh, was assisted by Rev. Gary Bryant in officiating at the final rites, and interment was in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

Mrs. Roberts died Friday afternoon in the Kings Mountain Hospital after several year's illness.

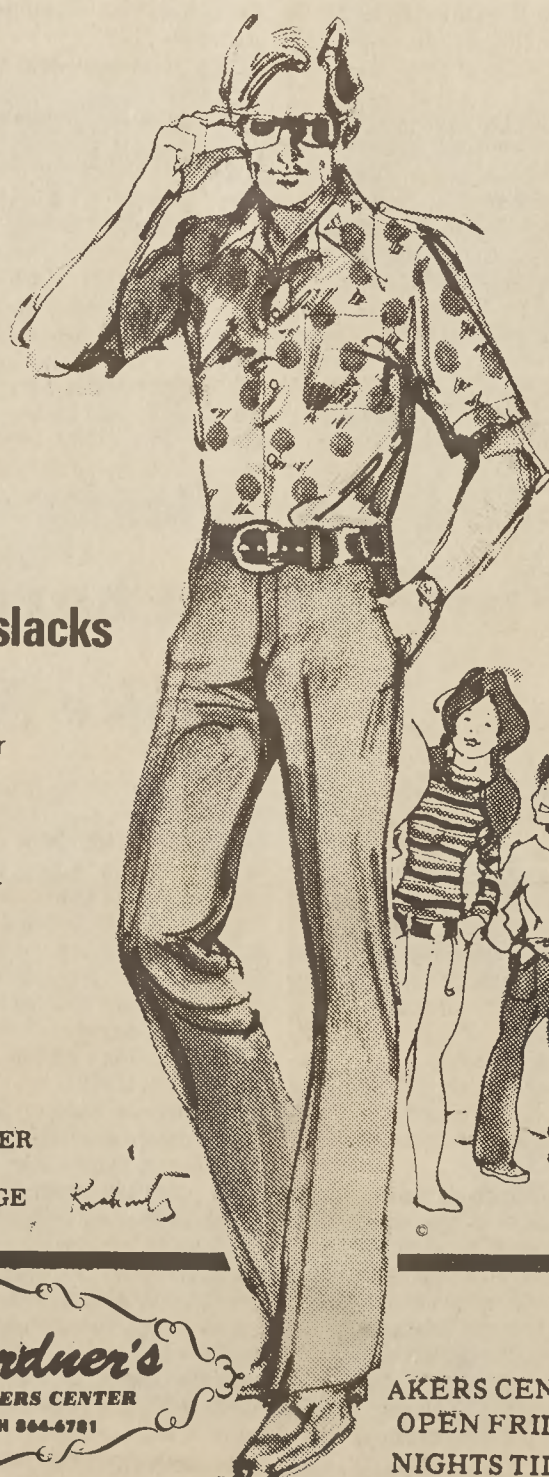

She was a native of Cleveland County, daughter of the late Miles H. and Georgia Neal Ware. For 42 years she was employed in the Weaving Department of Margrace Mill where her husband retired after many years service.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, are one daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Posey of Apex; one son, Kenneth Roberts of Lincolnton; four grandchildren, Debbie Posey Hershberger of Raleigh and Keith Posey of Apex, Chris Roberts of Houston, Tex. and Tracey Roberts of Lincolnton; and one great-grandson, Robert Hershberger of Raleigh. Also surviving are her sisters, Mrs. Edna Hord of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Bonnie Falls of Dunedin, Fla.; and her brother, Herman Ware of Kings Mountain.
