

Garden Wedding Unites Pair

Donna Albright Dudley and Tommy Howard Thrift were married Sunday in a 3:30 p. m. ceremony in the gardens of the Wesley Woman's Club.

The Rev. A. A. Bailey officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

For her marriage, the bride wore a formal-length gown of white tulle, featuring a short capelet and an empire bodice from which a ruffled flounce extended down the front of the gown, encircling the hemline. She wore a white picture hat banded with white satin ribbon and trimmed in lace. Her bouquet was white carnations and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. James B. Allen, Jr. served as the bride's matron of honor and only attendant.

Odell Thrift was his son's best man. Ushers were James B. Allen, Jr. and Eric Albright, brother of the bride, of Bessemer City.

A reception, hosted by the bride's parents, was held in the clubhouse after the ceremony.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Albright of Bessemer City and is a member of the faculty of the Kings Mountain District Schools.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Thrift of Shelby, is a student at Cleveland County Technical Institute and is employed with Custom Transport, Inc. of Lincolnton.

Grover will be home for the newlyweds when they return from a Florida wedding trip.

MRS. TOMMY H. THRIFT (Donna A. Dudley)

Big Time

Keith and Jackie Allison have been Crossroads favorites for five years, entering the country music entertainment field as teenagers.

A popular duo, Keith and his bride of little more than a year, emerged as top winners in the recent Piedmont Carolinas Talent Contest sponsored by the Grand Ole Opry of Nashville, Tenn. and have forwarded a tape to Nashville for a chance in regional competition.

Crossroads, located in the Oak Grove-Patterson Grove Communities, is a sounding board for local country music talent and has produced such stars as the Radford Sisters, 1972; Jerry Van Tassel, 1973; and Paul White and the Country Sounds, 1974, now traveling with the Wilburn Brothers of Nashville and billed as the Americountry Express and on the Americountry record label. White has also been featured in "Country Music Digest" in Nashville.

Keith and Jackie Allison are backed up by "The Outcasts" and like to sing country favorites made popular by duos like Loretta Lynn and Conway Twitty and George Jones and Tammy Wynette. "We're very proud of our Crossroads talent", admit Elaine and Tom Brooks, promoters.

Another Kings Mountain product of the Oak Grove Community, Terry Lovelace, is drummer for Paul White and the Country Sounds, booked for five weeks in Columbus, Ga. and appearing in sell-outs at the Daytona Races and in Tennessee. Terry got his chance in the "big time" when White's former drummer dropped out to complete his college education.

As 1973 winner of the Crossroads Talent Show, Van Tassel appeared on the stage of the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville as did the Radford Sisters in 1972.

Bible School Opens

Vacation Bible School opens Friday and continues through July 27 at Oak Grove Baptist Church and Vanda Hamrick will operate the church bus in the community daily at 8:30 a. m.

A Parade Friday from 8:30 until 11:30 will open the activities which will include bag snack lunches following the morning sessions. Commencement exercises will be held on Sunday, July 28, 7:30 p. m.

Classes will be open to young people ages 3-16. General director of the school is Mrs. Jewell Peppers and Rev. Russell Hinton is associate director. Chorister will be Mrs. Lillie Hinton, Mrs. Annette Webster will serve as pianist and Mrs. Donna Osburn will be secretary.

Pledge Vows

(From Page 2B)

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. King, Sr. of 1808 Elk Ave, Sarasota, Fla. and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Scott of 410 Garfield Dr., Sarasota. She is the daughter of the former Miss Irene Gallant, formerly of Kings Mountain.

The newlyweds are at home at 1600-8th St. Parkside West, Apt. 101, Sarasota, Fla.

POPULAR DUO — Keith and Jackie Allison, former Crossroads Music Park entertainers who were teenagers, may be headed for "big time." The Allison's won the recent

Grand Ole Opry Piedmont Carolinas Talent Contest and are billed as one of the most "fantastic singing duos in the Piedmont."

Fashion Merchandising Course

A new course in fashion merchandising and marketing technology will be offered at Cleveland County Technical Institute beginning the fall semester in September.

This course is the first of its kind to be offered in North Carolina at any Community College or Technical Institute. It can now offer what only a few private colleges have been able to offer in the past," said Sandra Daniels, director of the course.

the course getting the approval of Cleveland County Technical Institute and then succeeded in gaining the approval of the North Carolina State Board of Education.

Among the subjects offered leading to an Associate of Applied Science Degree include introduction to fashion marketing, fabric science, introduction to business, display design, history of costume, fashion buying and merchandising, fashion sales, and apparel fitting.

Mrs. Daniels further stated, "The course", is not designed for retail stores only, but also for manufacturing firms, wholesale firms, resident offices, and central buying offices.

This course will prepare an individual to be a productive employe in an entry-level job, giving an individual an understanding and appreciation of all the functions operating within the business enterprise, provide technical training.

A Southern Bell Classic

"I AM A WEEKEND CALLER."

By Alex Bell as told to T.A. Watson.

Isn't it think I had more important things to do on weekends than calling my distant...

Then one Saturday night, something happened that changed my mind forever.

I discovered Southern Bell's low rates on weekend calls. That from 5 p. m. on Friday till 8 a. m. on Monday, I can dial direct anywhere in the United States* (except Alaska) without an operator's assistance and talk for considerably less money than on weekdays 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. So that's why I became a weekend caller.

*Direct dial rates do not apply to person-to-person, coin, hotel, guest, credit card or collect calls. Rates subject to change without notice. For direct dial rates to Hawaii, check your operator.
