A-1 JAMES GILL

James Gill
To Compete

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. — Airman First Class James E. Gill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie P. Bell of Rt. 1, Grover, N. C., is scheduled to represent his unit in the 1975 Strategic Air Command's (SAC) "Giant Sword" competition at Ellsworth AFB, S. D.

"Giant Sword," the annual evaluation of SAC's top security police and munitions load crews, will pit the best of the best against one another in the week-long meet.

Sergeant Gill, a security policeman at Kincheloe AFB, Mich., will join other specially selected members of his unit in vying for top team honors. His team will be scored on their response to realistic, simulated situations involving the protection of aircraft and associated weapons. Knowledge tests and marksmanship will also be added to the scores.

Munitions load crews will be judged on speed, efficiency and safety practices utilized in loading weapons aboard B-52 and FB-111 bomber aircraft.

The airman is a 1974 graduate of Kings Mountain (N. C.) High School.
