

Mountain View Apples In Southern Yule Show

For the third year Mountain View Farms' locally grown apples will be a part of the Southern Christmas Show, running Nov. 11-16 at the Charlotte Merchandise Mart. It's owner, R. Nelson Connor of Kings Mountain, says people can't wait to sink their teeth into his juicy mountain apples, and so he sells them individually right at the show. He also takes orders for gift boxes of apples and citrus fruits, and adds, edible gifts are always welcome.

Now in its eighth year, the "Southern Christmas Show" is filled with attractions for the entire family.

Forty or more civic and church groups will have bazaars bulging with hand-made quality items, over 100 craftspeople will offer unique one-of-a-kind gifts and shoppers rows include holiday foods, plants and decorations.

Designer rooms will be decorated for the season, Christmas Tree Lane includes a dozen trees decorated in competition, the Christmas Flower Show Section will spotlight mantels, doors, tables and entrance hall arrangements and Olde Towne has again expanded its quaint shopping area.

A special animated "Night Before Christmas" with a mouse family in a Victorian doll house of 16 rooms will delight young and old. Children can meet Santa Claus and be entertained in a cartoon theatre or in a special puppet theatre.

The Progressive Farmer, A&P, Harris-Teeter, Park-N-Shop and Duke Power Co. will present cooking clinics each day at 11 a. m., 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. and on Sunday at 2 p. m. only.

Show hours are 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. weekdays and Saturday and from noon to 6 p. m. on Sunday. Tickets for adults are $2.00 in advance and $2.50 at the door. Senior adults (age 65 or more) and students (ages 10-18) are $1.00 in advance and $1.50 at the door. Children through age 9, excluding children's groups, are free with adults.

ASCS Office Receiving Committee Nominations

Farmers are reminded that the county ASCS Office is now receiving nominations for ASC Community Committee election candidates.

Ralph Harrill, County Executive Director encourages farmers to use this opportunity to nominate their farm neighbors as candidates in the ASC Committee Election.

The ASC Election will be conducted by mail from Nov. 21 to Dec. 1. Eligible farm voters will be provided with instructions for filling out the secret ballot and returning it to the county ASCS Office.

Most resident farmers are eligible to hold office as ASC Committeemen. If a farmer would like detailed information concerning eligibility requirements, he or she should contact the ASCS Office.

In filling out a petition, farmers should be careful to include the name of only one nominee, the signatures of at least three eligible ASC voters who support the nominee, and certification that the nominee is willing to serve if elected. Petitions must contain this information; without it, they will not be accepted. The completed petition should be dated and mailed or handdelivered to the county ASCS Office no later than Oct. 28.

ASC Committee elections are open to all eligible ASC voters without regard to race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Harrill explains that any concerned farmer with an interest in serving fellow producers who would be an asset to the ASC Committee. For this reason, farmers are urged to petition for the farmers of their choice. The individual producer will benefit in the long run from a responsible, concerned team of ASC Committeemen in the local administration of U. S. government farm programs, Harrill said.

Cleveland County has nine ASC Communities.

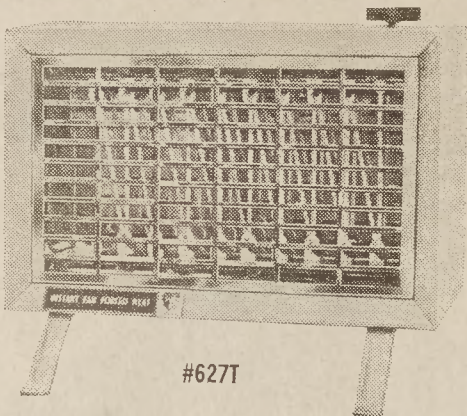

FOOD PACKAGE

Aluminum makes a unique food package. Resistant to greases and oils, it is odorless, tasteless, nontoxic and does not shrink, swell or soften. It's a good conductor of heat, but does not burn and won't crack in the freezer, points out Nadine Tope, extension food specialist, North Carolina State University.
