

Mitchells Wed In Double-Ring Ceremony

MRS. MARK MITCHELL
(Mary Alice Wolfe)

Beulah United Methodist Church was the setting Sunday for a 3 p. m. wedding uniting Miss Mary Alice Wolfe and Mark Dunn Mitchell in marriage.

The couple pledged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. W. C. Stroupe, minister of the church.

Mrs. Harvey Carpenter was organist for the program of nuptial music.

The altar of the church was decorated with a large arrangement of white gladioli, white mums, red carnations and blue cushion mums centered with two seven branch candelabra set with tapers and banked by emerald palms.

Lawrence Marshall Wolfe,

Jr. escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's traditional gown was fashioned of white polyester crepe with lace trimming the gown and train. The bodice was enhanced by a V neckline edged with lace and short puffed sleeves. The waist length veil of illusion was caught to a camelot cap outlined with pearls. She wore a silver bracelet that had belonged to the groom's maternal grandmother. Her cascading bouquet was of white miniature carnations, baby's breath with hints of blue and red dried star flowers and ivy.

All the attendants wore light blue polyester gowns with wide-trimmed white lace hat trimmed with blue band. They carried bouquets of red carnations, white miniature carnations and accented with a touch of blue star flowers and baby's breath with Carolina blue streamers attached.

Miss Glenda Ann White of Charlotte attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Roxanna Beam of Kings Mountain and Mrs. John W. Rudasill, Jr. of Lawndale.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Dale Alan Wolfe, the bride's brother, and Matthew Mitchell of Decatur, Ga., the bridegroom's brother.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church fellowship hall. Assisting in receiving and entertaining were Mrs. Recca Bingham, Miss Dianna Sweezy, Mrs. Paul Goforth, Mrs. Ted Sain, Mrs. Sandra Champion and Miss Betsy Steinert.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Earl Mitchell of Decatur, Ga. He is a graduate of Asheville High School, Palm Beach Junior College in Florida with an AA Engineering Design degree and UNC-Charlotte with a BSE in Engineering Science, Mechanics and Materials. He is employed by Dayco Corporation in Waynesville.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Marshall Wolfe, Jr. of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride. She is a graduate of Burns High School and UNC-Charlotte with BA in English. She was employed by the Cleveland County School System as a fifth grade teacher at Waco Elementary School.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Earl Mitchell of Decatur, Ga. He is a graduate of Asheville High School, Palm Beach Junior College in Florida with an AA Engineering Design degree and UNC-Charlotte with a BSE in Engineering Science, Mechanics and Materials. He is employed by Dayco Corporation in Waynesville.

After a wedding trip to South Carolina and Georgia, the couple will make their home in Green Acres Sub-Division in Clyde, North Carolina.

Recent Bride Honored By Bridges, Anthonys

Mrs. James Edward Mauney, recent bride, was honored Saturday, June 26, at a Coca Cola party hosted by Mrs. James E. Anthony, Jr. and Mrs. Glee E. Bridges.

The party was held at the Bridges home at 905 Crescent Circle.

Before her May 29 wedding in Harrisburg, Mrs. Mauney was Miss Anne Jenkins.

Sharing honors with Mrs. Mauney in the receiving line were Miss Priscilla Hamrick of Bessemer City, whose wedding to Dr. Jeff Mauney of Kings Mountain takes place July 24, and Miss Karen Sparks, Aug. 7 bride-elect of Steve Plonk.

All the honorees received corsages of summer daisies and baby's breath and gifts for their kitchens.

Summer flowers were used throughout the Bridges home.

Mrs. Anthony greeted guests at the front door and invited them into the living room where the honorees received.

Guests were invited into the dining room where the refreshment table was presided over by Mrs. J. C. Bridges and Mrs. George Plonk. Coca Colas were served in the den. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Joe Hendren, Mrs. Tom Bridges, Miss Jane Anthony and Miss Lynne Bridges.

The refreshment table was overlaid with white linen and held a central arrangement of daisies, baby's breath and Queen Anne's lace in a cut glass container. Silver appointments held a variety of sandwiches, ham biscuits, fresh strawberries, stuffed cherry tomatoes, mints, miniature chicken drum sticks and sweets.

Over 100 guests called between 10 a. m. and 12:30.

FREEDOM OF CHOICE

Part of the basic concept of freedom in this great country of ours is that we may choose the physician we want to treat us and the pharmacy we want to prepare our prescriptions. This freedom of choice is part of our heritage and we guard it proudly and jealously.

We don't like to be told we have to get something at a particular place or from a particular person. Our pharmacy is proud to be part of this community's health team and we hope you will want to choose us to be your pharmacy.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.
