

Return Home From Europe

Jacqueline Dyke of Kings Mountain and Ginger Davis of Grover recently returned from a two and-a-half week vacation in Europe.

Mrs. Dyke and Mrs. Davis visited their son and daughter, Spec. 5 Michael and Glenda Dyke and their son, Christopher, who are stationed in Brunssum, Holland with the U.S. Army.

While in Europe, Mrs. Dyke and Mrs. Davis visited Paris, France where they saw the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, Arch de Triumphe and other famous landmarks. Another excursion took them to Cologne, Germany where they toured the Dom

Cathedral and took a trip on the Rhine River to the Ahr Weire producing region. Here they sampled the wines and toured the wine cellars and vineyards.

In Hoensbroek, Holland they toured a 600-year old castle. A trip to Brussels, Belgium and tour of the Royal Palace and the Atomium (built for a world's fair) ended the vacation.

TIPS ON TRIPS

Planning a motor trip but hesitant about going because you're afraid you may not have enough gas to get there? Conserving gas when you're at home will help assure there's more available when you go. That's the view of the American Hotel & Motel Association, which offers some gas-conserving tips to travelers:

Call ahead for hotel/motel reservations. This saves gas you would waste driving aimlessly around looking for accommodations. You will also save gas by using the most direct route.

Consolidate shopping trips, organize car-pools and use mass transit if possible. If you must use your car, obey 55 m.p.h. limits, keep it well tuned, and avoid jackrabbit starts.
