Double-Ring Ceremony Unites Miss Stone, Mr. Mitchell

Oak Grove Baptist Church provided the setting Saturday for a 7 p.m. exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Martha Ann Stone and George Patterson Mitchell, Jr.

The couple exchanged vows of the double-ring ceremony before the Rev. James E. Holder, pastor of Midway Baptist Church of Gaffney, S.C. and former pastor of the bride.

Mrs. Bobby Webster, aunt of the bride, was organist for the program of nuptial music. John Rosemond and David Safford were guitarists, and John Rosemond and Bobby Webster, uncle of the bride, were vocalists. Mr. Rosemond sang "The Wedding Song" by Yarrow and Webster sang the benedictional "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap.

The altar of the church was banked with a setting of two spiral, two-three and two seven-branched candelabras enhanced by Southern palms. Behind the wrought-iron kneeling bench was a fan-shaped floral arrangement of daisies and baby's breath.

William Floyd Stone, Jr. escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's gown was a formal design of white satin organza and Venise lace posed over faille taffeta. The empire bodice was fashioned with yoke of English net outlined with lace scallops and topped with a scalloped lace Edwardian collar. Lace scallops circled the raised waistline and the long, fitted sleeves had lace points at the wrists. The Chapel-length veil of English tulle was caught to a matching lace Camelot cap and she carried a bouquet of daisies, baby's breath and yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Rick Falls attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Bill Stone of Kings Mountain, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Giles Beal, Mrs. Mike Gibson, both of Gastonia, Mrs. Andy Neisler of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Dale Carpenter of Concord, Miss Mindy Sloop of Fort Mill, S.C. and Miss Mary Keener of Canton. Elizabeth Pettett, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

All the attendants wore long gowns of Pistachio green Silesta jersey featuring high-gathered necklines, butterfly sleeves and blouson bodices. The overskirts of matching Silesta fabric had tulip hemlines. They carried bamboo fans with bouquets of daisies and baby's breath.

John Pettett of Danville, Pa., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

Groomsmen were David Adams of Greenville, S.C., brother-in-law of the bridegroom; James Green of Augusta, Ga., Dr. John Baarcke of Union, S.C., Tom Windham of Atlanta, Ga., Bill Stone of Kings Mountain, brother of the bride, Randy Suarez of Columbia, S.C., and Jim Tatham of Gastonia. Junior ushers were Larry Stone of Kings Mountain, nephew of the bride, and David Adams, Jr. of
