

Dr. Heinsohn To Hold Services At Boyce Memorial

DR. JACK HEINSOHN

Dr. Jack Heinsohn, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church of Los Angeles, Calif., will fill the pulpit at Sunday morning worship services at 11 o'clock at Boyce Memorial ARP Church, Edgemont Dr.

Dr. Jack Heinsohn, spent his youth as a circus performer working for ten years as an aerialist with Wallace Brothers Circus, Clyde Beatty Circus, and various circuses throughout the country. While wintering with a circus in South Carolina, he learned about Erskine College, and while studying at Erskine he became a Christian and felt the call to the Gospel ministry.

He finished Erskine College in 1951 and Erskine Theological Seminary in 1953. He then served Hickory Grove and Smyrna (S.C.) Associate Reformed Presbyterian Churches for two years. He then served six years as Denominational Evangelist for the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. Following this he became Chaplain for Grove City College, a Presbyterian school in Pennsylvania until accepting the call to Los Angeles.

He is married to the former Martha Lauderdale of Lexington, Va., and they have five children. Erskine College bestowed the Doctor of Divinity on Rev. Heinsohn in 1977.

James Somers Named Controller At Carmet

James L. Somers, division accounting manager for Carmet Company's Minetool Division, has been named to the newly-created position of controller.

In his new position, Somers will manage the Division's financial assets, as well as other administrative areas. Carmet Company is a division of AlleghenyLudlum Industries, headquartered in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Carmet's division offices are in Kings Mountain,

North Carolina, with manufacturing facilities in that city and Bluefield, Virginia. Warehouses and district sales offices are located throughout the country. The firm's products include various tools for the coal mining and construction industries.

Allegheny is a widely diversified international company with more than 40,000 employees at 180 locations in the United States and abroad, with annual sales in the range of $1.5 billion.

Somers started with Carmet as a financial analyst in July, 1975, and later became manager of division accounting. Previously he had held cost accounting positions with Rockwell International and Western Electric Company, both in the Midwest.

He holds a BS-BA degree from University of Nebraska at Omaha, the city where he was born and raised.

Somers resides with his wife Bette and their five children in Gastonia.

Dr. Phillips To Speak

Dr. A. Craig Phillips, superintendent of the State Department of Public Instruction, will be guest speaker at the quarterly breakfast meeting of the Cleveland Association of Governmental Officials (CAGO) Aug. 15th at 7:30 a.m. at Governor's Inn, Shelby.

The announcement of Phillips' upcoming visit was made at Monday night's Board of Education meeting by Supt. William Davis who invited "100 percent participation by local board members at the meeting." Mrs. Joe Lee, a member of the school board, is CAGO president and will preside.

Phillips, who will be in the county for most of the day, will confer with school administrative personnel and members of the three school boards. He will also visit in the various schools, said Davis.

Dr. Phillips was elected to his third four-year term as state superintendent in 1976.

Monthly GED Examinations To Be Held August 10 & 11

The monthly GED examination is scheduled at Cleveland Tech on Friday, Aug. 10, from 1 p.m. until 6 p.m., and will continue Sat., Aug. 11, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Both sessions are required in order to complete the test.

Application may be made by any North Carolina adult 18 or older who has been out of a regular high school program for at least six months.

will be issued a Certificate of High School Equivalency by the NC State Board of Education.

A GED preparatory program is available but not required. This is a self-study, self-paced program.

There is a $5 fee for the GED testing service. The fee will be collected by Cleveland Tech's business office at 12:30 p.m., on Fri., Aug. 10. The receipt along with proper identification will serve as admittance to the testing session.

Applications to be tested or re-tested must be made by Fri., Aug. 3 to Mrs. Rebecca Cook or a staff member in the Learning Resources Center at Cleveland Tech, 137 South Post Road, Shelby.
