Sisk Participating In "Unitas XX"

Navy Quartermaster Seaman Fredrick S. Sisk, son of Mary H. and Horace Sisk Jr. of 305 N. Canslek St., Kings Mountain, N.C. is currently participating in exercise "Unitas XX" in the Southern Hemisphere.

He is a crewmember aboard the guided missile destroyer USS Dewey, homeported in Charleston, S.C.

This marks the 20th consecutive year for the series of combined U.S. and South American naval exercises called "Unitas." These operations are designed to promote a high state of preparedness and cooperation between the various naval and air forces that protect the southern sea lanes of the Western Hemisphere.

Participating U.S. forces will circumnavigate South America and join with the navies of Venezuela, Brazil, Uruguay, Argentina, Chile, Peru, Ecuador and Columbia for the scheduled training. Operations will include anti-submarine and anti-craft warfare, plus surface gunnery and communications exercises. Units will visit some 20 cities in eight different countries during the four and one-half month deployment. A 1975 graduate of Kings Mountain High School, Sisk joined the Navy in May 1976.
