

Junior High Defeated 20-6

Kings Mountain Junior High's Patriots dropped a 20-6 Western Conference football game Thursday at East McDowell.

down on a five-yard run, William Short gained 41 and Roy Mathis nine. Coach David Hart said "I felt like we played a real good game except for all the turnovers. They were the difference." KM lost three fumbles, including one on the four-yard line. Hart cited Welch, Mike Dover, Mathis and Jeff Moss for their defensive play. The Patriots host College Park of Hickory Thursday at 4:15 p.m.

Kings Mountain High's girls tennis team won three matches last week to run its overall record to 8-2 and Southwestern 3-A Conference mark to 4-1. The Mountaintettes won a 9-0 forfeit win over Burns after the game was called off early because of rain. The Burns coach notified KM coach Ed Guy later that the Lady Bulldogs did not wish to make it up. KM was leading all four singles matches that were being played when the rains came. The other two singles matches and three doubles matches never began.

KM blanked Chase 9-0 Tuesday at Chase and picked up a 9-0 win over Crest on Thursday. KMHS goes to West Lincoln today and returns home Thursday to entertain East Rutherford in its final home match. The Mountaintettes play Crest, Shelby and Hunter Huss on the road to close out their regular season.
