Helen Belcher Award Winner

Helen Belcher of Kings Mountain recently competed in the Carolina Beauty and Harvest Festival at the Charlotte Civic Center, where she was awarded the 1979 Special Effects Medallion. Ms. Belcher, who is employed at Scissors and Styles, won her award in the Southeastern Man's Hairstyling Contest. The 32 contestants were judged in the areas of cutting, styling and special work performed. Judgment was also conducted in the area of model's attire and the ability of the stylist to coordinate the hair into a total fashion look. Ms. Belcher also made the black oriental gown worn by her model, Frank Tessner of Kings Mountain.

Soldier Participates In Training Exercise

U.S. FORCES, Germany — Pfc. Terry B. Goode, son of Mr. and Mrs. E.F. Goode, Route 4, Kings Mountain, recently participated in Constant Enforcer, a major field training exercise in central Germany. Approximately 30,000 American, German, Canadian and Belgian soldiers took part in the exercise. Constant Enforcer, which involved more than 2500 tracked vehicles and 300 helicopters, provided units with realistic combat training in a simulated combat environment. The maneuver was conducted near the scenic and historic Marburg-Kassel area of Germany. Goode is a communications operator with the Third Armored Division in Frankfurt, Germany.
