Good Earth Garden Club Bazaar Set

Country Holiday II, second annual bazaar sponsored by Good Earth Garden Club, opens Saturday morning at 10 a.m. and continues until 2 p.m. at KM Depot Center.

The Depot Center will be transformed into a Christmas holiday house with a Country Store, a Christmas Shop, and Crafts, many of which are handmade by the members of the club.

All proceeds from the bazaar will be used by the club for fuel for the needy, via the KM Ministerial Association Helping Hand Fund, to the Clothing Closet for needy children at KM District Schools, and for a Good Earth Garden Club Scholarship for a needy child.

Mrs. Jerri Stinnett and Mrs. Jackie Scism, co-chairman, said members will begin serving ham biscuits, coffee and hot cider at 10 a.m. and continue during the afternoon.

The Country Store will feature homemade baked goods, apples, apple cider, pecans, peanuts, old-fashioned stick candy for a penny a stick, assorted pine cones, and canned goods.

The Christmas Shop will feature handmade Christmas ornaments and wreaths plus Christmas bows, napkins and other items.

The Crafts Store will feature cross-stitch, wooden dolls and book-markers, among other gift ideas.

Culmination of the event will be presenting a handmade afghan to the winner of a lucky ticket in a drawing. The afghan, which won first place at both the Bethware and Cleveland County Fairs, was made and donated by Mrs. Gall Cheshire.

Mrs. Pam Goforth is president of the club, Mrs. Connie Bell is vice-president, and Mrs. Wanda Conner is publicity chairman.

"We invite the community to join us at the Christmas bazaar which promises to be bigger and better than last year's successful 'event,'" said Mrs. Conner.
