

OBITUARIES

RICHARD YOUNG

Funeral services for Richard Young, 37, of Rt. 4, who drowned Friday afternoon after falling into a ditch containing water, were conducted Tuesday at 4 p.m. from Ebenezer Baptist Church by the Rev. D.C. Wilson, Rev. R.D. Lucas, Rev. H.L. Rhedrick, Rev. A.A. Ponder, and Rev. D.A. Costner, interment following in the church cemetery.

Coroner Bennett Masters said Young had walked to his mailbox to get the mail and was apparently returning home when he suffered a seizure and fell head-first into a ditch containing three to four inches of water. Masters said Young lived on an unpaved road about a quarter mile from a main road where the mailbox was located.

He was a native of Cleveland County, son of Mrs. Ruth Young of Kings Mountain and the late Yates Dewey Young. In addition to his mother, he is survived by four brothers, Elder Cornelius Young, Thurman Young, and Nova Young, all of Kings Mountain, and Frank Young of Spindale; four sisters, Mrs. William Dawkins of Gaffney, S.C., Mrs. Willie Gardner of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Lewis Roberts and Mrs. Marie Martin, both of Shelby.

J.W. Gill and Sons Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

MRS. ADDIE BRIDGES

Funeral services for Mrs. Addie May Bridges Harlow, 71, of 906 First St., who died Friday night, were conducted Monday at 2 p.m. from Sisk East Chapel in Bessemer City with the Rev. L.E. Ramsey officiating. Interment was in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

Mrs. Bridges was a native of Cleveland County and a retired textile employe. She was daughter of the late Susie and Charles Bridges, Sr.

Surviving are her husband, Jack Harlow; a son, Floyd Styers of Oklahoma City, Okla.; a daughter, Mrs. Woodrow Cronan of Kings Mountain; four brothers, Dan, Dennis, Theodore and Charles Bridges, Jr., all of Kings Mountain; a sister, Mrs. Bryte Huffstetler of Kings Mountain; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Sisk Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation to the many friends and neighbors and especially Dr. Thomas Durham and the staff of Hendricks-Durham-Lee-Crowley Clinic, the staff of KM Hospital and the staff of KM Convalescent Center for their many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy at the death of our loved one.
