Dr. Shank Opens Office In Gastonia

Dr. Richard A. Shank, of Kings Mountain, announces the opening of an office for the joint practice of optometry, with Dr. R.W. Bynum. This office, at 428 W. Franklin St. in Gastonia, will include contact lenses and eye examinations.

Dr. Shank, a 1978 graduate of Southern College of Optometry in Memphis, with a Doctorate Degree, also belonged to the Honor Society, Sigma Alpha Sigma, and to Beta Sigma Kappa. He also graduated from North Carolina A&T University in Greensboro, in 1971. At A & T, Dr. Shank joined the brothers of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, was President of his graduating class, and first vice-president of the Association of Organization Presidents (APOP).

DR. RICHARD SHANK

His most recent organizational affiliations are with the Charlotte Medical Society, the American Optometric Association, the National Optometric Association, and the College of Optometric Physicians. His area of interest in optometry is contact lenses, having done research and published articles concerning the disinfection of soft contact lenses.

Having attended elementary and senior high school in Kings Mountain, Dr. Shank lettered in band and four different sports (football, basketball, baseball, and track), while in high school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Shank of Kings Mountain, and is the first of four sons. Dr. Shank is a tennis enthusiast, having won numerous tournaments, likes jazz, the disco scene, and is a sports car fanatic.

Dr. Shank, who is single, says he is "glad to be back in North Carolina, and particularly Gaston, and I look forward to many happy years in this area."

Youth Rock For $200

Young people of Foursquare Gospel Church rocked for benefit of church projects recently and earned over $200, Rev. R.J. Hannagan, pastor, announced.

Some of the proceeds will be used to purchase a Christmas present for patients of Kings Mountain Convalescent Center, said the pastor, among other church projects.
