

Wofford Honors Jim Kimmell Jr.

James W. Kimmell Jr., a senior student at Wofford College in Spartanburg, S.C., was one of 25 juniors and seniors tapped for membership in Blue Key National Honor Fraternity during the annual Fall Honors Day-Founders' Day ceremonies.

He also was recently named to "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges," one of a total of 25 Wofford seniors selected. He will be listed in the 1980 edition of the publication.

Kimmell was selected for the honors on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and participation in extracurricular and academic activities. He is a senior history-English-Spanish major. At Wofford he has been named to the Dean's list, has served as editor of the student newspaper "Old Gold and Black," and was recently elected president of SAR social fraternity.

He spent six months in Europe, attending the University of Valencia in Valencia, Spain for the Spring semester, 1979. He then traveled extensively in Europe for seven weeks, doing an independent study of modern culture in Europe. During Easter vacation from the University of Valencia he traveled in Morocco.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kimmell of Latta, S.C., former residents of Kings Mountain. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ware of Kings Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kimmell of Gastonia.

Cinderella Play Opens At KMLT

The curtain goes up Thursday (tonight) at 8 p.m. on the Kings Mountain Little Theatre holiday production of the popular fairytale, "Cinderella."

Performances are also on Friday and Saturday nights at 8 p.m. and Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. in Park Grace Auditorium.

Mrs. Graham Wood is directing the three-act play.

Advance tickets may be obtained from any L-T member or at the door.

A Grass Roots Grant is financing the cost of costuming for the production.

Lead roles in "Cinderella" are portrayed by Bonnie Sheffield in the title role and John Grant as her Prince Charming. Vivian Duncan is the fairy godmother, Florrie Hamrick is the wicked stepmother and Debbie Hinson and Lisa Whitfield are the stepsisters.

A large cast of young people are appearing in the show, many of them for the first time under the lights.

LUNCHEON

Circles 1, 2, and 3 of Central United Methodist Church will meet for a Christmas luncheon Monday at noon at the church. No gifts will be exchanged.

At KM Community Center

Bazaar Opens Friday

A two-day Christmas Bazaar opens Friday at 1 p.m. at KM Community Center Gymnasium.

Sponsored by the KM Parks and Recreation Department, the bazaar, featuring local exhibitors and open to area shoppers, continues until 10 p.m. Friday and will be open from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. Saturday.

Santa Claus will make a special appearance at 4 p.m. Saturday to take special requests from the kiddies until 5 p.m.

Mayor John H. Moss will officially open the festivities at 3 p.m. Friday and Rev. Robert Boggan, pastor of Central United Methodist Church, will give the invocation.

Items from various participants, including churches and individuals, will be available to the buying public and displayed on tables decorated in the holiday motif. Included will be canned and baked goods, Christmas candles, macrame, wicker, pillows, scarves, toboggans and other gift ideas as well as a demonstration of pottery making by

Mrs. Maxine Rhea.

Entertainment will be provided from local church groups, including First Baptist Carolers, Youth Community Gospel Chorus, Kings Mountain Senior High Brass Quartet and the Mount Zion Baptist Church Young Adult Choir.

"This is the first bazaar of this type in Kings Mountain and we invite everyone to participate in the events of Friday and Saturday," said a spokesman for the Parks and Recreation Department.
