READING COUNCIL ORGANIZED—A Reading Council has been organized in the KM District Schools to assist elementary children with reading problems. Pictured are several of the members, which include principals and representatives.

Reading Council Is Organized

A Reading Council has been organized in the Kings Mountain District School System to assist with improvement of reading instruction in the elementary schools.

The Council includes all elementary principals at the five plants, East, West, North, Grover, and Bethware and Central School plus representatives of the schools.

Members of the Council, in addition to principals, are Mrs. Doris Wallace and Mrs. Diana Allen, Bethware; Mrs. Bess

Phifer and Mrs. Sandra Conner, Central; Mrs. Margaret Smith and Mrs. Marie Ballard; East, Mrs. Carolyn Mitchell and Mrs. Elaine Biggers; Grover, Miss Connie Phifer and Mrs. Beulah Carroll, North; Mrs. Edith Bridges and Mrs. Jackie Hope, West; and Coordinator Martha (Mrs. Glee E.) Bridges.

Members of the Council meet regularly in the Administration Building on Parker Street for workshops and planning sessions.

Oak Grove Firemen Urged To Meet Tonight

Annual meeting of the Oak Grove Volunteer Fire Department will be held Tues., Dec. 11th, at 7:30 p.m. at the Fire Department in the Oak Grove

Community. Fire Chief William Davis encourages all members to attend.

PRESENT PROGRAM—The Kings Mountain District School Singers are shown here presenting a musical program to area senior citizens Friday at the Kings Mountain Woman's Club. The Woman's Club sponsored the Christmas party for the senior citizens, who gather there each Thursday for a covered dish luncheon.
