

Wright Receives Badge

FORT BENNING, Ga.—Pvt. Clayton L. Wright, son of Mrs. Brenda H. Wright, 608 Meadowbrook Road, Kings Mountain, recently received a Parachutist Badge upon completion of the three-week airborne course at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

During the first week of training, students undergo a rigorous physical training program and receive instruction in the theory of parachuting. The second week they receive practical training by jumping from 34-foot and 250-foot towers.

The final week includes five static-line parachute jumps.

Wright, a 1979 graduate of Kings Mountain High School, entered the Army in July 1979.

His father, Clayton Z. Wright, lives on Route 4, Shelby.

Citizens Flying Flags

Kings Mountain citizens are flying flags in Kings Mountain in support of the 50 U.S. hostages in Iran.

Members of the Kings Mountain Optimist Club began Monday displaying the Stars and Stripes in front of local businesses. Many individuals are displaying the flag at their residences.

"Iran and the American hostages who are being held by the students there, continue to be of concern to all Americans," said a spokesman for the civic club.

Some citizens in town are also displaying white arm bands as visual evidence of support for the President's handling of this crisis.

The practice of flying the flags is expected to be continued in the area until the hostages are released.

DAR Chapter Meets

The Colonel Frederick Hambricht Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. Tolly Shuford Wednesday afternoon.

Thirteen members were present and upon arrival the hostess served a sweet course with coffee.

Mrs. Shuford opened the meeting with the DAR Ritual. She also read a Christmas story, "Christmas 1979 Beautiful" which was written by Fra Geovanne, the national president.

The National Defense Chairman gave a report.

Mrs. W.T. Weir had the program, "Christmas 1914 World War I." "The War That Stopped for Christmas."

Mrs. Vida Wright Linder was welcomed as a new member.

Summer Job Info Available From Broyhill

Congressman James T. Broyhill (R-N.C.) announced today that information applicable to summer jobs with the Federal government is now available.

Interested parties should contact the Federal Job Information Center, Post Office Box 25069, Raleigh, North Carolina, 27611 for general information on the opportunities which will be available and the filing deadlines for the different types of positions.

"Opportunities vary by location, and the competition is keen," Broyhill said. "Applicants are encouraged to file at their earliest opportunity in order to receive maximum consideration." As will be noted in the announcement, applicants must submit their applications directly to the agencies where they desire employment.

"I would urge those citizens who are interested to file at their earliest opportunity," Broyhill said. "If they have any specific questions, I hope they will feel free to contact one of my district offices."

Raymond Hook Graduates Specialist

WICHITA FALLS, Texas — Airman Raymond E. Hook Jr., son of Raymond E. Hook Sr., of Bessemer City, N.C., has graduated from the U.S. Air Force medical services specialist course at Sheppard Air Force Base, here.

Graduates of the course earn credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.
