

Wattersons Wed Sunday At Bethlehem

MR. AND MRS. A.V. WATTERSON
(Bonnie Matthews)

Sharon, David Exchange Marriage Vows Friday Night

(Begins on page 2B)

Jolly in winter white and Miss Clifton in green silk and white marble mum corsages.

The bride's mother was gowned in a long formal of Quiana silver beige designed with embroidered cut-out flowers at the square neckline held by spaghetti straps. The waistline was enhanced by an overblouse effect with a slim skirt. The jacket had shirred long sleeves and was fingertip length. She wore a white glamella corsage at her shoulder.

The bridegroom's mother chose a long Quiana gown of navy designed along princess lines and enhanced by an overlay fingertip sheer cape with embroidered cut-out flowers at the neckline. She wore a glamella corsage.

Mrs. A.R. Hawkins of Kings Mountain, paternal grandmother of the bride, chose a short soft silk mauve dress with white marble mum corsage at her shoulder.

Mrs. Lillian Ford of Kings Mountain, maternal grandmother of the bride, chose a short soft silk dress in navy and floral print with a white marble mum corsage at her shoulder.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully-appointed reception in the church fellowship hall.

Guests were greeted by Robert Ford and Miss Sherry Short.

The bride and bridegroom cut their wedding cake from a table overlaid with white sheer and lace. The cake, at one end of the table, was white and decorated with red coppertone roses topped with wedding bells and the traditional bridal figurine. The other end of the table held a lighted antique brass candelabra with white marble mums, silk coppertone forget-me-nots, gypsophilla and white tapers. The cake was cut and served by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Belt, aunt and uncle of the bride, of Gastonia.

A second table, overlaid in white sheer and lace, held a crystal and gold punch bowl surrounded by white marble mums and greenery. Red coppertone punch was served by Mr. and Mrs. Travis Hawkins, aunt and uncle of the bride, of Kings Mountain. Sausage balls, cheese straws and party mints were served from gold appointments. Mrs. Louise Short of Kings Mountain and Miss Diane Fuller of Charlotte assisted in serving.

The fireplace in the fellowship hall was flanked by Roman gold columns holding arrangements of magnolia leaves in gold containers. The mantel was decorated with gold candelabra set with white tapers and arranged with magnolia leaves. The piano held gold candelabras and white tapers with an arrangement of greenery and white mums. The bride's portrait was displayed on a wooden easel flanked by green ferns.

Mrs. Evelyn Bridges played an arrangement of love songs during the reception.

Misses Stacy Belt, Nicole Lowary and Amy Rae Scism distributed rice bags to guests during the reception. The rice bags were contained in small gold baskets.

For traveling, the bride chose a blazer suit in beige wool with silk beige blouse and black suede accessories. She wore the white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet and a single strand of pearls, wedding gift from the bridegroom.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Billy H. Hawkins of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride who is a graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School and Central Piedmont Community College of Charlotte. She is a registered nurse on the staff of the Intensive Care Unit of Charlotte Memorial Hospital.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Protheroe of Charlotte. He is a graduate of South Mecklenburg High School of Charlotte and owns and operates B.D. & S. Stone Works in Charlotte.

The newlyweds will be at home on Mill Drive in Landis.

The Parsonage of Bethlehem Baptist Church was the setting Sunday afternoon for the 4 p.m. wedding of Bonnie McGinnis Matthews and A.V. Watterson. Rev. Sam Murphy, pastor of Bethlehem Baptist Church, heard the exchange of vows in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride and bridegroom entered the ceremony room together. The bride chose a pink street-length long-sleeved dress of polyester crepe and a shoulder corsage of pink roses.
