

Miss Eva Plonk Is Hostess To Book Club

Miss Eva Plonk was hostess to the regular meeting of the Thursday afternoon Book Club at her home on Hillside Drive. Seventeen members and one guest enjoyed Miss Plonk's hospitality.

Miss Annie Roberts was in charge of the program for the afternoon. Miss Roberts was still unable to be present after her surgery, but had arranged the program. Mrs. E.W. Neal introduced Mrs. Ruby Goff of the Bessemer School System. Mrs. Neal pointed out the many things beyond her line of duty Mrs. Goff had done for the Media Center in the Bessemer City Primary School. Mrs. Goff was the first woman volunteer from Gaston County in World War II and served in the Navy. She received the Human Relations Award for two years and was chosen for the third time, but declined, to give the honor to another person.

What child could help but learn to love books and reading if they spent their library hours with Mrs. Goff. She brought all sorts of objects and trinkets that she had hand-made to make a child create interest for a book or story. She did a great project for the Super-Read Program and had the Art Class of one of the schools to paint the Super-Read Logo on a down-town building. She delighted the group with her story she used to try to impress on under-privileged children the importance of bathing and cleanliness. She tries to impress upon the children that they are never alone if they can acquire the love of reading and the love for good books. Mrs. Neal thanked the group for her Birthday card and her singing telegram. Miss Plonk served a delicious salad and sweet course with coffee.

Mrs. Tom Trot announced that the September meeting would be at the home of Mrs.

Paul McGinnis, Ms. Marion Thomasson would have the program and it would be a delightful surprise.

Members said good-byes wishing each a happy summer until the meeting the last week in September.
