

18 Girls Seek Crown

Eighteen young ladies are seeking the title of Miss Dixie Youth through a special penny-vote promotion by the Kings Mountain Dixie Youth Baseball League.

The girl who receives the most votes will be crowned Miss Dixie Youth during the city's annual Fourth of July activities.

Girls in the running, and the teams they represent, include, Susan Ware, Parkdale; Kamie Wiggins, Independence Bank; Angela Ross, Patterson Oil; Cindy Moore, Cubs; Kendra Cash, Mets; Linda Green, Plonk Oil pee wee team; Diane Clippard, Bolin's Day Care; Lee Ann Humphries, American Legion; Becky Moskal, Cardinals; Amy Morris, Vitamin Bees; Tonya Weeks, Plonk Oil Patriots; Debbie Moss, Optimist; Sherrie Roberts, C&C Metal; Andrea Patterson, Kiwanis; Misty Shockley, Police; Michele Bolin, Rotary; Gina Stone, Champion's Landscaping; and Nicole Gandt, Jaycees.

A brief sketch on some of the girls follows:

TONYA WEEKS

Tonya is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. Gerald Weeks and is a fifth grader at West School. She is a member of Resurrection Lutheran Church and enjoys piano, reading, baseball and running.

AMELIA HUFFMAN

Amelia Diane One Year Old

Amelia Diane Huffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Huffman of the Dixon Community, was one year old June 18. She celebrated the event with a party on June 28.

Guests enjoyed Holly Hobbie cake and refreshments.

Present for the fun were her four year old sister, Karen Michelle; Mrs. Calvin Huffman and daughters Mary and Terri; Mrs. Jimmy Wilson and daughter Libby, Mrs. Daniel T. Regan and daughter, Joanne; and maternal grandmother, Mrs. Glenna K. Norville.

FATHERS HONORED

Macedonia Baptist Church honored fathers of the congregation in a special salute to fathers recently. Sid Moss was honored as the senior father present, Dale Lawing as the youngest, and David Lawing as the father of the most children, five.

IT'S A GIRL

Steve and Cindy Kiser announce the birth of their first child, a daughter, Kristen Elizabeth, June 27 at Cleveland Memorial Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kiser and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Langley and great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. S.G. Glover, all of Shelby.

Legion Auxiliary Wins State Awards

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 155 brought home first place awards for its history book for the second consecutive year and first place award for its newsletter from the state convention held during the weekend in Winston-Salem.

Out-going District 23 President Arlene Barrett of Kings Mountain also was honored as the district president with the highest percentage of units participating in the sale of legislative bulletins. Judy Harmon and Lib Stewart are unit historians and

Mrs. Barrett and Lib Stewart are co-editors of the Auxiliary publication. The Unit also won a certificate for Community Service.

Attending the convention from Kings Mountain were Joe

H. McDaniel, Rick Moore and David Delevie, representing Post 155, and newly-installed District 23 President Ruth Gamble, Arlene Barrett and Lib Stewart. Representing Warren F. Hoyle Unit 82 Auxiliary of Shelby was Mrs. Mary Wilson.

The Shelby unit won a Golden Press certificate.

Mrs. Pierre Dalmas of Valdese was installed as the new state president and Fred Corbett of Post 380 in Charlotte was installed as the new state commander.

JOIN

US

FOR

A

GRAND JULY 4th
CELEBRATION

50%

Off Regular Prices
On Entire Stock

Register For One of Ten
Vacation Gift
Certificates
(No Purchase Required)
4 Days For Two

In Myrtle Beach, S.C. at The Holiday Inn

- Deluxe Room Accommodations
- Split of Champagne upon arrival
- Continental Breakfast
- Discount Coupons for Shows, Restaurants and Attractions
- Free Pier Fishing Daily

Free
American
Flags
(While They Last)

Open 10 A.M. - 10 P.M.

Interiors by Costner's
Six miles north of Shelby on highway 18 - right on Costner Rd.